AN ENJOYABLE PROGRAM

Interpretive Solo and Group

Dances by Pupils of Miss

Alice Dee

The local pupils of Miss Alice Dee of Cambridge, gave a most enjoyable program of interpretive solo and group dances before a large audience in Liberty hall, last evening. The program, which was a rather lengthy one, was under the personal direction of Miss Dee and the numerous dance numbers were executed with precision and ability by the participants.

The "Cake Walk," "Highland Lasso," and the "Jockey" dance were well given, as were the numerous solo numbers. Old-fashioned dances, classic and jazz dances were included in the program, affording a well arranged evening's entertainment.

Little Miss Laurette Emerson was new honors by her clever interpretation of "The Syncopator," and the "Dying Swan."

At the conclusion of the program, the young ladies were presented bouquets which added greatly to the gaiety of the occasion.

Miss Margaret E. Connor was the accompanist of the evening and she was assisted by a local orchestra which furnished the music for the general dancing which followed the program.

SEN. WHEELER IS EXONERATED

Borah Committee Frees Montana Man of Charges—Vote 4 to 1

Finds No Acceptance of Fee for Legal Service Before Interior Department

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A report exonerating Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, "from any and all violations" of the statute under which he was indicted at Great Falls, Mont., has been submitted to the senate by Chairman Borah of the special committee which investigated the charges against him.

The report, which was signed by four of the five members of the committee, was confined to the question of Senator Wheeler's guilt or innocence and made no mention of the indictment or the preceding activities in Montana of Blair Coan at the direction, he testified, of Secretary Lockwood of the republican national committee.

Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, dissented from the committee majority view as to its function, holding that it was not instructed to pass upon the guilt or innocence of Senator Wheeler, but upon the question whether the indictment was justified by the evidence, or, as charged, on the floor, by the Montana member, was the result of a "frameup." He reserved the right to submit a separate report.

The majority report, which Chairman Borah announced, he intended to discuss later, said the committee had found that Senator Wheeler had "neither received nor accepted, nor agreed to receive or accept, any compensation whatever, directly or indirectly, for any services rendered, or to be rendered, in behalf of Gordon Campbell, the Montana oil operator indicted with him, in relation to any case in which the United States was a party, or directly or indirectly interested."

WAR ISSUE UP FOR DEBATE

Attitude of Methodist Church Toward War Most Important on Today's Program

Removal of "Amusement Ban" and Election of Bishop Other Matters

SPRINGFIELD, May 15.—The attitude of the Methodist church toward war, the proposed removal of the "amusement ban," and the election of new bishops, are the chief matters of interest to the delegates of the 29th quadrennial general conference as today's session opens.

Yesterday the committee on the state of the church voted to recommend to the main body the "separation" of the church from all wars. Now that the issue of North and South unification has been settled in the affirmative, the war issue is considered the most important of any to be decided.

Until the committee on the Episcopacy has reported on the number of Episcopal residences to be administered during the next quadrennium, the matter of elections will be held at a standstill. A powerful group has been fighting in the committee to have no new bishops elected but certain Episcopal areas must be eliminated if that group is to have its way, and strong opposition was encountered yesterday from delegates in areas whose elimination was suggested.

The committee on the state of the church still has under consideration the question of eliminating the amusement ban from the Methodist discipline, but a report to the conference is expected shortly.

A report on the consolidation of the church benevolence boards will be made by the committee on temporal economy, possibly by the first of next week.

"TIZ" FOR TENDER, SORE, TIRED FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz."

"Tiz" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "Tiz" is magical; "Tiz" is grand; "Tiz" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired.

Get a box at any drug or department store, and get relief for a few cents.

decided. A minority report of the committee proposing that the church go on record as supporting wars in self-defense or in defense of humanity, will be presented with the majority report; and a sharp division of sentiment is certain to be revealed.

PLUTONIC PAVING LAST WORD IN ROADS

Curiosity exists in many quarters of public discussion in Lowell and vicinity following the announcement that a new highway construction material, oddly christened "plutonic pavement," is to be employed in the rebuilding of the new Princeton street boulevard. The fact that a Lowell highway is to be the very first public thoroughfare in the United States to receive the new paving creation, has naturally attracted the attention of numerous citizens and taxpayers whose money pays for new road construction work in Lowell. Many are interested to know just what really new features are to be found in the approved "plutonic pavement" proposition submitted to improve present-day highway construction, familiar to all who use modern thoroughfares.

The Sun has obtained a detailed description of this new pavement with the appellation of ancient derivation. Taxpayer-readers will be able to form some idea about the material to be used on the Princeton boulevard improvement, which may enable the curious uninformed to make comparisons with other highway composition make-ups.

"Plutonic pavement" is constructed by a new process. It derives its name from the material used for the wearing surface, which is plutonic rock, geologically regarded as of igneous origin, solidified and crystallized at some depth below the surface. For this pavement the preferred plutonic rock is granite, which combines in its crystalline structure characteristics which render it resistant to wear, of great strength and easily wrought to rectangular shapes which can be set to a true plane.

Granite Blocks Standard

The standard pavement for heavy traffic streets in large cities is a granite block pavement, constructed in accordance with the standard specifications of the American Society for Municipal Improvement, and because of its long life and small maintenance would be the standard in the smaller municipalities and for state highways. If the first cost were anywhere near the cost of other pavements.

To meet this economic condition and make possible a pavement surface of blocks of plutonic rock at a price within the means of state highway commissioners, plutonic pavement has been originated. The standard granite block consists of a concrete foundation six inches to nine inches deep, on which is spread one inch of sand or dry mortar for a cushion in which the granite blocks are set, after which the joints are filled with cement grout, mixed one to one, or with a bituminous joint filler, making a pavement 12 to 15 inches deep. By this method, the granite blocks must be of uniform size, particularly as to depth, resulting in a much larger expenditure of labor than is required to produce blocks with more variation in size.

The Pavers' Formula

Plutonic pavement is constructed by spreading on the compacted sub-grade four inches of concrete mixed dry, in which rectangular plutonic blocks, four to six inches in depth and three to six inches in width, are set in such a manner as to bond thoroughly with the dry concrete. The blocks are mounded to a true surface, then water is applied gradually by using a spray nozzle, in sufficient quantity to wet the concrete enough to cause the initial set. This is immediately followed by application of the cement grout as provided for standard granite block pavement.

This plutonic method provides a concrete slab, faced with plutonic blocks, nine inches in depth, which, in comparison with the standard granite block pavement of fifteen inches in depth, where a concrete foundation nine inches in depth is specified, results in a reduction in the amount of excavation of 40 per cent, a reduction in the amount of concrete of 55 per cent, the elimination of the sand or mortar cushion, and the elimination also of about 50 per cent of the labor required in manufacturing the plutonic blocks. The cost of transportation on these blocks is the same as for the standard size. The cost of the completed pavement by this new method ranges from 50 to 60 per cent of the cost of standard granite block pavement, and closely approximates the cost of reinforced concrete of equal depth. It is claimed.

First Laid in 1921

In 1921, a short "plutonic" section of the Groton-Lowell highway, a state-county-town project, was constructed in Westford, by the highway constructors, in accordance with specifications prepared by Herbert E. Fletcher, consulting engineer for the town of Westford and inventor of the new paving construction. The Groton road "plutonic sample" was located in part over an old bog and in part on hard soil. No provision was made for drainage. The highway is used by large trucks loaded to the limit allowed by law and hauling from extensive quarries adjacent to the highway. There has been thus far no indication of weakness or failure in the "sample" pavement due to heavy traffic.

Lowell Watched It Wear

Lowell's acquisition of the first contract installation of the "plutonic" to be made since the new road-construction composition was introduced and placed on the markets of the world from Westford headquarters, was brought about as follows:

While the experimental highway in Groton was under construction in Westford, the work was examined and the process studied by the Lowell city engineer, superintendent of streets and other officials of the municipality. This examination and study, together with the present condition of the highway, after being subjected to heavy loads, led Mayor John J. Donagan, City Engineer Stephen Kearney, the board of public service and the Lowell chamber of commerce to advocate the adoption of plutonic pavement for the reconstruction of one and three-tenths miles of the Princeton boulevard. This boulevard is an important part of the state highway leading from Lowell to the New Hampshire state line and connecting there with the Daniel Webster highway to the White mountains.

The Massachusetts board of public works, the above-named officials of the city of Lowell and the president of the chamber of commerce, Hon. Edward Fisher, conferred on the matter and the state board forthwith adopted plutonic pavement for the project contemplated.

HELD MAY FESTIVAL IN CHURCH VESTRY

A most successful and enjoyable May festival was held last evening in the vestry of the Worthen Street Baptist church by the members of that church. At 6:30 o'clock a beautiful supper was served those present. Miss Lucy Stevenson and Mrs. Thelma Sutherland assisted by Miss Alice Chase, Mrs. H. D. Wilson, Miss Gertrude Fisher, Mrs. Harry D. Carr and Mrs. Pratt were in charge of the supper.

An entertainment, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections as well as novelty numbers followed the supper. Miss Sarah Mason entertained with piano solos while soprano solos were given by Mrs. Marion McKnight, Stevenson, Mr. Carl Mason gave several tenor solos while Mrs. Alice Livingston gave read numerous sketches. A social hour followed the entertainment. Mrs. Everett Prescott was in charge of the candy table when the festival was concluded during the evening.

FOR BENEFIT OF THE CUNNINGHAM FUND

A most enjoyable and successful dancing party under the auspices of the Pawtucketville Improvement association, the proceeds of which will be donated to the Cunningham fund, was held last night at Pawtucket box house with a large number attending. Since the ball, tickets, and orchestra were offered gratis, the entire proceeds will go toward the fund.

General dancing was enjoyed until midnight, with Campbell's orchestra furnishing the music. At the intermission specialty numbers were given by the Carr children and refreshments were served by members of the committee.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of the following: C. P. Cronin, chairman; William H. Rigby, treasurer; Charles E. McQuillan, secretary; James A. Clifton, floor director; Mrs. Harly Roberts, Mrs. Patrick Brennan, Mrs. P. J. Mooney, Mrs. John J. McMahon, John Cogger, Edward Farrell and Clarence Lord.

DISPLAY OF BOOKS AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Original stories, dealing with members of the animal kingdom, Brothers Rabbit, Squirrel, Cat and Sisters Mouse and Rat, printed in gaily illustrated

booklets, some in color, the compositions of Junior students of the Lowell State Normal school, are on display in the exhibition room of the school. The booklets are all printed by hand, and the drawings samples of free-hand work, are the products of several weeks of work on the part of 140 Junior pupils of the school. The stories are all most entertaining, being as appealing to the grownups as to the children, and a credit to the young ladies who compiled them.

ROTARIANS CONVENTION

Toledo, Ohio, Man Pleads
for Greater Friendship
Between Nations

TORQUAY, England, May 15.—"When nations, like individuals come to know and to understand one another, it will be increasingly difficult to embroil them with one another," Frank Mulholland of Toledo, Ohio, told the convention of Rotarians of the British Isles here today. Mr. Mulholland is past international president of Rotary and with international president Guy Gundaker of Philadelphia, is making an official visit to the members of Rotary International Association for Great Britain and Ireland now in convention here.

"Through Rotary, mankind is finding means of substituting friendly accord among nations for orgies of fear, suspicion and apprehension," he said. "The great ameliorating fact of international acquaintance and friendship is coming into the world, growing into the lives of men, teaching them how to get along with their fellow men, how to get along with the other fellow. Some day Rotary friendship will make sunshine enough to drink up the tears of grief. Some day Rotary friendships will wipe the lines of avarice from the brow of commerce. Some day Rotary friendships will supplant the greed, the ignorance, the jealousy and suspicion that today holds this old world in fear behind the darkening clouds of adversity."

SPRINGFIELD, May 15.—Roger T. Rehn, 28, a lay delegate to the general Methodist conference from the West China conference, committed suicide in his room at a local hotel some time last night, and his body was found today. Mr. Rehn was a teacher in the Christian school at Chungking, West China. A letter addressed to the general conference was found in his room in which he explained the reasons for his act. He leaves a wife and two children.

ESCALATORS FOR LADDER-SHY FISH PROPOSED

SEATTLE, Wash., May 15.—Escalators for ladder-shy fish were proposed here yesterday to solve the problem of building a 90-foot dam in the Columbia river $100,000,000 power project without blocking the peregrinations of the salmon in their native habitat.

Models will be erected to determine whether they prefer to climb a ladder or be shot through a turbine elevator. The salmon annually go up the river to spawn and then return to deep water.

REALITY THEATRE

John Gilbert, whose work in such pictures as "Monte Cristo" and "St. Elmo" and other notable Fox productions, has made him one of the most popular idols of the screen. One of his best acting in his latest Fox picture, "The Wolf Man" which opens at the Reality theatre today. In the role of honorable Edward Stanley, a victim of dual personality under the influence of drink, Gilbert portrays the typical English gentleman at one point and with startling contrast becomes "The Wolf Man," a beast with out pity or conscience. At another, vivid scenes of luxurious club life in London, are followed by realistic shots of existence in the northwoods of Canada where the honorable Gerald is driven by his weakness. An enthralling love story is woven into the picture and a capable cast interprets its ramifications with marked ability. Norma Shearer has the leading feminine role.

The added feature on the bill is "Breaking Home Ties," a story of Jewish home life on the East Side in New York's Ghetto and was inspired by the heart-throb Hebrew melody, "Hill, Hill." Briefly the story concerns a Jewish youth who flees from his home in Russia after a jealous quarrel with his best friend, and whom he believes he has killed. He leaves his penniless folks in the old country and migrates to America. Here after many years he becomes a famous lawyer. His folks also come to America and fall in their efforts to locate their son. As they are about to be sent to the poorfarm, the son is found and a happy reconciliation follows, in which the son is vindicated from all trouble.

Good Health In Happy Old Age

THE chief concern of elderly people is their health, and that is best assured by regular daily bowel movement. There is no truth, however, in the notion that because you are old you need a "strong physic." In fact, just because you are old a mild laxative is better for you. The trouble with purges and cathartics, and physics is that they shock the system and weaken it, and make the muscles of digestion flabby. Dr. G. H. Brown, V. S., of Frederic, Wis., nearly wrecked his stomach with purgatives. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin restored his health, as it did Mrs. J. S. Etheridge's, of Milledgeville, Ga.

Does Not Gripe

You can be sure of satisfactory evacuations every day if you will take a spoonful of Syrup Pepsin at night when you retire. You will not need to take it very long as a few doses will soon encourage the bowels to act for themselves. The popularity of this wonderful family remedy has become so great that it is now the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world. Because of its mildness and freedom from gripping it is especially ideal for the extremes of ages, for children and for elderly people.

Effective at Small Cost

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store. The formula is on the package, and the cost less than a cent a dose. Take it when you feel heavy, sleep poorly, have headache or night cramps, for these are also symptoms of constipation. Give it to the children when they are restless, feverish or have a cold. Syrup Pepsin will keep you and the family free from constipation, a condition that lowers the vitality 25 per cent and raises the blood pressure 28 per cent. Freedom from constipation lessens the pain of kidney trouble, neuritis and rheumatism.

A CITY'S TRIBUTE

The schools all closed for the day and New Orleans turned out en masse to greet Mrs. Faith McDonough Leister of Tiffin, O., when she arrived. It was an amazing tribute to the great-grandniece of John McDonough, founder of New Orleans' public school system. Years before, McDonough had come down from the north, made his fortune in the southland, and on his death left his millions for the erection of 31 public schools. Here are school children, wearing costumes of McDonough's day, greeting Mrs. Leister.

DEATH OF DR. SUN

Expected to Result in the Collapse of South China Government

HONG KONG, May 15. (By the Associated Press.)—With the death of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the visionary leader of the beleaguered South China government, the capital of Canton is expected to pass into the hands of the Peking government, whose forces for the past year have been battling the troops of the "constitutionalist" president. While Dr. Sun surrounded himself with a number of loyal and efficient generals and governmental leaders, it is not considered likely that any of his associates will be able to wield sufficient influence to prevent a collapse of the southern regime.

For months, the Sun government has been on the verge of bankruptcy and had only succeeded in financing itself by means of exorbitant taxes, confiscations and the burning of the opium-bulking and opium trade.

Whether the passing of the southern leader will mean the centralization of Chinese government is unpredictable. Some influential Chinese believe that Sun's death will mean the wiping out of many sectional differences which have thus far kept the republic in chaos. Others say that new opposition may spring up which will cause a continuation of civil war more devastating than that which has been fought in the south.

The organization was effected by Mrs. Mary Finnen of Haverhill, district worker, and a temporary organization was immediately formed and plans for a permanent organization discussed.

Lowell lodge met in another hall of the same building with Dictator John L. Sullivan presiding. Routine business was transacted and chairman Ernest E. Parsons of the committee reported that the lodge, which was organized last night, was in Westlawn cemetery would be appropriately decorated on Memorial day.

An entertainment program was given in Hamilton hall and was enjoyed by members of both Lowell Lodge and Lowell Chapter. The program was under the direction of Frank J. In Their Own Words...

Only five years ago the first package of Rinso was made in Cambridge, Mass., put on a grocer's shelf, sold to an American housewife, and used in place of bar soap, to do a weekly wash. Today over a million packages of Rinso are sold every week. What is it about Rinso that has given it this sweeping success?

The following letters, a handful only of the many received by the makers of Rinso, tell in the simple, sincere language of the women themselves just what it is that Rinso does and why it comes as one of the greatest practical discoveries of recent years to the American housewife.

"I SAW AN AD in the street car"

"Not long ago I saw an ad in the street car 'Soaking takes the place of rubbing.' The next day I sent for a box of Rinso and tried it. I was delighted with the result and now wash my children's clothes without any effort whatsoever. I just had to write and tell you how 'wonderful' I think Rinso is and have told several of my friends to try it.

"It is wonderful for scrubbing floors. Without a doubt the best thing I have ever used. I also cleaned my enamel sink with it and it is wonderful."

"MY CLOTHES used to come out so yellowed but now they are snowy white"

"I always had trouble with my clothes—they used to come out so yellowed. Then a friend told me about Rinso. I found it makes a wonderful soap solution I couldn't get any other way. This soapy solution just removed every bit of dirt and then it all rinsed out completely. There was nothing left to yellow the clothes—there couldn't be, because there was no soap to stick—it was all dissolved.

"I am now delighted with my wash—my clothes are always snowy white."

"NO HELP did I get"

"I am doing washings for people who are not able to do it. At first I tried everything. I would say to my husband, 'I hope this helps me, but no help did I get.' My grocer said one day, 'Why don't you try Rinso?' At first I washed from 7 o'clock in the morning until noon. I got so tired, I could not sleep. Now I am through washing and ironing in one day.

"At a demonstration at our store not long ago, I bought a case of the large size package of Rinso. The lady who lives above me asked if I had a machine. I showed her my two hands. I cannot give Rinso enough praise and I would walk a mile for it."

"BOUGHT thirteen boxes at our church fair"

"I bought a package of Rinso just to try it out and used it according to directions, and really the results were marvelous, and I have bought since at our church fair 13 boxes and I have recommended it to my neighbors who are using it with good results.

"Then I found that Rinso is excellent for removing finger prints from white paint and for washing all woodwork. It has cut my housecleaning troubles in half. I will never use anything else, because it is both labor-saving and time-saving."

"THE CHILDREN get ink and shoe polish on their hands"

"Rinso made my clothes clean without rubbing them to pieces on the board. It proved such a help in the laundry that I experimented on the walls and woodwork and now use it for general cleaning. The children get ink and shoe polish on their hands and they take Rinso to wash their hands. I call it 'Rinso the Universal Cleaner'!"

"The MAGIC-LIKE way it cleans paint"

"I feel that my clothes are not clean if I use any other soap or soap powder, but what I particularly praise Rinso for is the magic-like way in which it cleans paint."

"A RATHER Pretty Compliment"

"The other day, after she had finished hanging out her washing, my neighbor remarked, 'There's no getting away from it, that Rinso is the stuff to wash with!' That coming from the mother of two boys who has a nose too small washing, is rather a pretty compliment."

A NEW KIND of LAUNDRY SOAP that simply SOAKS dirt out

RINSO is a new kind of soap that dissolves completely—makes a rich soapy solution that gently soaks out all the dirt.

It does away with rubbing soap on the clothes to get them soapy and then rubbing the soapy clothes to get them clean.

Then it rinses out thoroughly leaving no soil in your clothes to make them gray and dingy. No bits of soap to turn them yellow under the iron.

Just shake some Rinso into a saucepan, add hot water, and you'll get the wonderful soapy solution that is the only soap you need for your set tubs, your boiler, your washing machine.

Get Rinso from your grocer today—regular size or big new package. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

GAINED SIXTEEN POUNDS IN WEIGHT

Gratifying Result of Tonic Treatment in an Illness of Several Months' Duration

To check a decline in health, weight and strength and restore the patient to health requires a genuine body-building tonic. This was what was accomplished in the case of Mrs. Catherine Fohert, of No. 613 Bronson St., Watertown, N. Y. She says:

"I had had an attack of influenza and it left me in such a run-down condition that it seemed as though I should never regain my strength. I tried many remedies but they didn't seem to have any effect. I was very pale and could hardly get around the house. In fact I had to lie down frequently and for a period of two months I never left my bed. I couldn't eat substantial food and had to exist on liquids."

"One day a friend suggested Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to me and I began the treatment. There was some improvement after the first box and I continued the treatment until I had taken five boxes in all. In that time I gained sixteen pounds in weight and recovered my appetite. My color was restored and I can do my work without any feeling of weakness. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends as the ideal tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, post paid, on receipt of five, sixty cents per box, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. A valuable booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free upon request. Adv.

TO ELIMINATE RADICALISM IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—An all-Americanism conference, representative of 63 national, patriotic, civic and fraternal organizations, was convened here today to co-ordinate efforts to eliminate radicalism and foster Americanism and better citizenship.

The conference, assembled at the invitation of Garland Dowell, national director of the national Americanism commission of the American Legion, was called upon to plan a vigorous campaign against "the slacker's oath" and the organization advocating it, and consider the report of the flag conference held here last June with a view to working for proper observance of rules governing use of the Stars and Stripes.

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allorhu, to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspaper. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allorhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. THE IMMIGRATION BILL THREAT OF EXPULSION

Measure Expected to Reach the White House Before End of Current Week

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Quick, almost perfunctory acceptance in both chambers was forecast for the conference report on the immigration bill today, prior to its final consideration by the house, after which the senate will be called upon to act.

Including the clause fixing July 1, this year, as the effective date of the Japanese exclusion provision, which President Coolidge once prevailed upon the conference to change to March 1, 1925, the measure is expected to reach the White House before the end of the current week.

Split Among Theatrical Managers as Result of Formation of New Organization

NEW YORK, May 15.—Members of the Producing Managers' association who formed the Managers' Protective association in order to sign the 50-20 agreement with the Actors' Equity association faced a threat of expulsion from the parent organization today.

The Producing Managers' association in a statement issued last night stated that inasmuch as these members had proceeded against the majority opinion, they have violated the by-laws and were liable to expulsion. Lee Shubert, leading spirit of the new organization, informed of this move, ridiculed the idea. The struggle will revolve around the effort of the members of the new association who still retain technical membership in the P.M.A., to regain their share of the $200,000 said to be in its treasury.

FOLEY NAMED TAMMANY HEAD

Only Two of 70 Members of Executive Committee Voted Against Him

Model of "New Era" Type Tammany Has Been Moulding for Years

NEW YORK, May 15.—A new chief is the reins of power in Tammany today. James A. Foley, surrogate-at-large of the late Charles Murphy, has been chosen to carry the policies inaugurated by the man partly responsible for the rise of the party and the infusion of new blood in the Tiger organization.

Better than talcum powders for infants or adults

It's the Skin Like Magic cause it contains healing, soothing, antiseptic ingredients not found in talcum powders. That is why it's nothing like it. All druggists

TAKING THE FIRST STEPS

"How you carry that child—Look out—Don't sit her down that way!"

Mrs. Mann was constantly interrupting Mr. Mann's parades with the first-born.

And well she might keep a careful eye, for the posture of the child is most important.

For several months the baby should remain lying. If it has properly developed by the third month, it should be able to hold the head up without aid. Its back and head should always be supported by the person holding the child. By the end of the sixth month the child should be able to sit up without support.

leaving an office that carries a salary of $15,000 to assume the leadership in New York's oldest and most powerful organization which has never paid a salary. He probably will resume law practice.

Tammany men say Surrogate Foley is a model of the "new era" type of politician which the hall has been moulding in recent years.

His predecessors were mostly men of humble parentage and lowly environment, men born in the city's tenement houses and on the streets.

Charles P. Murphy was one of these. Richard Croker, John Kelly and William Marcy "Boss" Tweed were others, and so on backward through many of the years of Tammany's existence.

Their was the school of hard knocks. Their fathers were men of hard gang leaders and ward heeds.

Murphy, "One Solinus" was the highest development of that old school. His brain pushed him up the ladder and his brain balanced him on the top.

It was he who encouraged the "new era" type of politician and founded the school from which such men as Surrogate Foley, Governor Alfred E. Smith, Supreme Court Justice Robert F. Wagner and Senator James J. Walker, leader of the state senate, and others, graduated.

Thus the election of Surrogate Foley as chief of Tammany's main league is viewed by political leaders as the passing of a regime and the ascension of a new kind of "boss" to the controlling throttle of probably the most powerful machine in municipal politics in America.

At an age when their predecessors were winning votes by overbearing opponents with their fists, Foley and those of his clique were winning votes by enacting progressive laws in the state legislature.

The new chief is 42 years old, a graduate of the local public schools and with honors of the College of the City of New York and the New York Law School. At the age of 25 he entered politics, and straightway was elected to the assembly. Six years later he was elevated to the state senate, where he remained until, in 1919, he was elected to the surrogate's bench by a plurality of 15,000, when every other democrat on the ticket went down to defeat.

In the assembly, where he was floor-

About this time the child will already indicate a desire to creep and, if normal, will have started doing so. By the ninth month, it should be trying to stand up and before the end of a year should be able to take some steps. Many babies are walking within a year, while others take up to 15 months.

It is unwise to encourage the baby to walk without some mechanical contrivance to aid while the bones are gaining their proper strength. Also the child should be allowed to assume the posture it chooses and should not be encouraged to assume any particular position, or to walk before it shows a desire to.

leader, and in the senate, Foley was considered one of the most nimble-minded and shrewdest orators in either party. In the constitutional convention he, Governor Smith and Justice Wagner scored foray victories over the best legal talent of the state.

His record of legislative achievement covers a wide field. He sponsored, in the senate, the first comprehensive bill providing a living wage for women. He fathered the workmen's compensation law, the eight-hour bill for women, the teachers' salary increase bill, a municipal ownership bill, a measure which created the transit construction commission, and a water power development bill giving the state control of all hydro-electric development. He was the prime mover in legislation which saved New Yorkers an estimated $7,500,000 annually in telephone rate reductions. Always, he has been a leader in the fight for "home rule" for this city.

Foley's reputation for reform followed him into the surrogate's office, where one of his first acts was to obtain legislation increasing the fees of revenue of the county by $60,000 a year.

TO ESTABLISH MENTAL HEALTH CLINIC HERE

Through the joint co-operation of the Massachusetts Society for Mental Hygiene and the State Department of Mental Diseases a mental health clinic is soon to be established in Lowell under state auspices and at state expense. If interest warrants, two clinics will be conducted, one for children of from two to 19 years of age and the other for older children and adults. The work of both clinics will be preventive rather than curative and will endeavor to nip in the bud early and incipient cases of nervous or mental disorders.

The local clinics will be in charge of a specially trained group of physicians and nurses from the state division of mental hygiene. Details of time and place for the clinics will be announced at the public mass meeting to be held next Tuesday evening in Liberty Hall.

Dr. Douglas A. Thom, director of the state division of mental hygiene, under whose direction the clinics will be formed, states that many children develop harmful and undesirable mental habits in the pre-school age, between 2 and 5 years. This is known as the plastic formative period when habits, temper tantrums, when not given their own way are other examples of these tendencies.

For example, children who are chronically and excessively jealous or pugnacious may be developing a type of personality that will seriously handicap them in later life. Days of dreaming, sulky and capricious food habits, temper tantrums, when not given their own way are other examples of these tendencies.

in-plate condensers have been found of best advantage in this book-

up. Their capacity would be around

.00025 mfd.

Double Duty

One rheostat of 5 ohms resistance is used for both radio and audio amplifying tubes and a smaller rheostat is employed for the detector tube.

The grid leak should vary between and 2 megohms and the grid condenser should have a capacity of about .0002 mfd.

The regular round No. 11

copper wire is advised for the leads, instead of the rectangular bus wire, because the square edges of the bus wire are conductive to radiating losses.

This set is best adapted to the use of PV-200 tube for detector and UV-

210-A tubes for the amplifiers.

The phone jack and the primary of the second radio frequency induc-tance may be connected by the medium of a 15-volt B battery, although this may be increased to 67.5 or even 50 volts, if more volume is desired.

With the increase in volume it must be remembered, there comes a sacrifice in selectivity.

The tuning of the set depends almost wholly on the two condensers, whose highest efficiency will be found at almost similar readings. But the potentiometer comes in for extraordinary careful adjustment. The moment a signal is heard in the phone, once it is taken care of, however, it will be found that the set will work well without further adjustment.

BELLEVUES WIN OPENING GAME IN CITY TWILIGHT LEAGUE

GAME UPWILL BATTLE GIVES THE BELLEVUES 4 TO 2 VICTORY

Loose Fielding by Americans Important Factor in Result—Klutka Stars at Bat for Winners—Big Crowd Enjoys Hard Fought Battle in City League Opening

Many of the old favorites in the local baseball world returned to the familiar South common diamond last evening to participate in the opening ceremonies of the City Twilight League. The first contest of the season, containing all the thrills of the national pastime, was won by the Bellevues, who triumphed over their old rival, Marie's Americans, by a score of 4 to 2.

With Livingston on the mound, the Bellevues fought an up-hill battle, coming from behind in the fourth inning when they registered two runs for a tie score, and winning out in the fifth when they added two more to their total just as the shades of darkness were enveloping the playground.

5000 Witness Game
It was a good game from every standpoint and the crowd of more than 5000 fans from every section of the city was kept enthralled throughout. The struggle was brought to an abrupt termination in the last half of the sixth inning when Empire Manager called the game after a dispute over the legality of a fly ball hit to Abe Buckley in center field. Buckley claimed he caught the ball, while the Americans contended that he played it "on the hop." Two runners were on the paths at the time and both crossed the plate with the understanding that the ball had landed in fair territory. As the umpires could not state definitely whether or not Buckley had really made the catch, it was decided to call a halt to festivities. The score then reverted, in accordance with league regulations, to its standing in the previous inning, the fifth, when the Bellevues were leading by a two-run margin.

Hard Fought Battle
Aside from this mishap, the game was interesting and hard fought. Herb Mulino took the rubber for the Americans and worked like the mule of old until the fourth stanza when he hit one batter and was touched up for a couple of bingles that netted a dust of counters. Mulino whiffed seven Bellevue batters and allowed three free tickets to first while his opponent, Livingston, walked four men and had two strikeouts to his credit.

Klutka Stars at Bat
In the batting department, Eddie Klutka was the big luminary. In three trips to the plate, he knocked out two steaming doubles. He also played a neat game in the field. Freddie Crowe was away off at second for the Americans. After making some of the prettiest stops ever seen on the common, Freddie heaved the ball to the stand in back of first base on two occasions. In all, he was credited with four mis-cues, something unusual for him.

and Klutka registered soon after on a sacrifice fly to centre by Bradbury. Fireworks in Sixth
At this stage the Bellevues were leading by a two-point margin. It was getting dark, but the players went into the sixth inning full of fight. The Bellevues were re-energized, however, concluding their activities with a stellar catch of a hard-hit liner to centre.

Then the fireworks started. Connors got on in virtue of an error by Lawson at first. Netto followed with another error. There were two runners on, and both were advanced a peg on a sacrifice by Carr. With a chance to win his own game or at least effect a tie score, Mulino faced Livingston. His bat connected with a fast one and the ball went sailing into the pasture, guarded by Buckley. The ball landed somewhere. Buckley took a couple of spins and came up holding the ball in his gloved hand. The runners had crossed the plate. Buckley claimed he caught the ball. The Americans disputed the claim and an argument followed. When the umpire could not come to a decision as to the catch, it was agreed to call the game off, with the score reverting to the previous inning. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME
The next game in the City Twilight League will be played Friday evening between the Ricard Belmonts and the Pawtucket A. A. who are reputed to have very fast teams.

Next week's activities will be overshadowed by the Centralville East Ends and the Butlers. Manager Jack Partell of the East Ends, and Billy Rogers of the Butlers are both counting on winning out.

John Peters, proprietor of Marie's restaurant, set the Americans' bench. Because of Mr. Peters' generosity, the Americans this year will be fully outfitted with brand new uniforms and paraphernalia. On out-of-town trips, Mr. Peters will provide automobile transportation for his players and will do all in his power to encourage clean baseball sport in the city. Last year's champions will sport the title of Marie's Americans in the future. "And we'll win the pennant again this year," avers the genial John.

Mayor Donovan was in great form. "Jack" throws with equal ease with both his right and left hand. He gets them over the plate, too.

League players will be interested in the announcement that R. E. Barnard, manager of the Spencer shoe store in Central street, has donated two pairs of Spencer shoes to be awarded to the player making the most home runs during the season, and the player with the best batting average. The offer should encourage the men to give their best efforts.

Eddie Carr, originally scheduled to catch for the Americans, was in Haverhill with the high school team in the afternoon. He played right field last night.

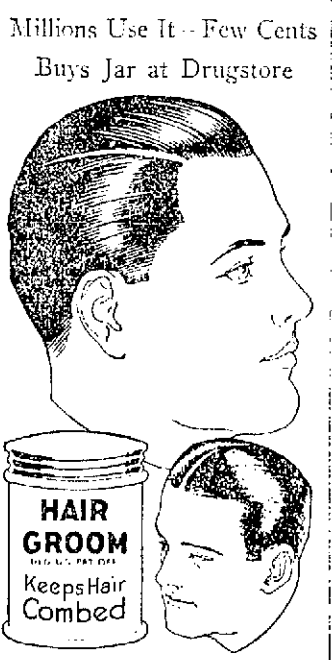

Supt. Kernan of the park commission did a good job in seeing to it that the fans were in position. Playing conditions in general were ideal.

The collection totaled $39.10 as against $28 the previous night.

Boyle and Gradwell Reported in Fine Condition for "Rubber" Battle

With the prospect of a bout for the New England welterweight title hanging in the balance, Phinney Boyle of Lowell and Willie Gradwell of Somerville will battle it out for supremacy in the main event of the Moody club card in Crescent rink tonight. The pair have met twice with each landing a decision, hence the winner of tonight's bout will have clear claim to a chance at the championship.

A title match will be held in Boston next week with Eddie Shelvin, winner of the crown, meeting Tansey Norton. The bout was originally scheduled for tomorrow night, but it has been postponed at the request of Shelvin, who contracted a severe cold while training.

With the big chance to compete for the championship in sight, both Boyle and Gradwell have trained diligently for tonight's encounter. Jack Leiby, speaking for Boyle, and Eddie Mack, who looks after Gradwell's business, say their men are in perfect condition and confident of the outcome.

The two previous engagements between Boyle and Gradwell were slashing battles, and indications point to another hectic mill when they come to the center of the ring this evening. Frankie Hebert, local flyweight, who was awarded the decision over Young Brown in Boston on Tuesday night, is on the program to meet Tony Marks of Boston in tonight's semi-final. Tommy Leonard of Lowell and Bert Arnold of Boston will meet in one preliminary and Frankie Christo of Lowell and Willie Rose of Montreal will perform in the other six rounds.

LOWELL HIGH DEFEATED

Local Team Loses to Haverhill High in Haverhill—Score 2 to 1

In a battle of pitchers yesterday afternoon, Lowell high school lost to Haverhill high in Haverhill by the score of 2 to 1, the winning run coming in the ninth inning after two men had been retired.

Gibbons for Lowell and Fontaine for Haverhill pitched spectacular ball, with honors fairly evenly divided, but a Conley double in the last stanza, followed by a single by Boyle, gave Haverhill pitcher, pushed over the deciding counter. Haverhill got only three hits off Gibbons while Lowell nipped Fontaine for four, but did not give its mound-men the light support he needed in such a tight game. In addition Gibbons swept back 11 Haverhill men on strikes.

Lowell was first to score, getting its solitary run in the third inning. Carr led off with a double and went to third on an infield error. He scored while Reynolds was being tossed out at first. Haverhill got the run back in the fourth and the game was in deadlock until the last of the ninth.

YALE VARSITY BEATEN

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 15. White Yale's varsity baseball team was defeated by a 7 to 3 defeat from Yale on one part of Yale field in a 12-inning game yesterday. Yale freshmen team and Goddard seminary of Haver, Ct., were playing 18 innings to a scoreless tie.

Announces that he has signed Arthur Lynch and "Pop" Williams. Both will be seen in the next game the Bellevues play.

At a meeting of the league managers in the first school after the game, it was decided that tonight's 12th inning game play again. The money will be returned at the end of the season.

Reard's Belmonts are due to play the North Ends next Sunday at 3 o'clock on the South common.

The following umpires will officiate at league games in the future: Buster Curran, Orrie Allen, Eddie Rogers and McManus.

Crowe's stops were brilliant, but his throwing was erratic. Probably is capable of doing better than he did last night.

O'Brien, regular Bellevue first sacker, did not show up. He will be in there at the next game, however.

The fans were pleased when the game was started at 8:15 sharp.

Looked like old times in seeing up the players. The league will have the best in the city.

Teams will be limited to 15 players. Last year the player limit was 12.

H. C. BEATS HARVARD

Pitcher Onie Carroll Again Master of Crimson Ball Nine—Score 4 to 1

BOSTON, May 15.—For the seventh time running Harvard's varsity ball nine was turned back yesterday by Jack Barry's team from Holy Cross, and for the fourth time in succession was beaten by Owen Carroll, the Purple's fine right-handed pitcher, who one of these fine days will be up in the big show.

The score yesterday was 4 to 1, what prevented another shut out for Carroll being a four-base smash to the miniature lake in left field beyond the lacrosse flat on Soldiers field by Dolph Samborski. Otherwise Carroll would have had a 4 to 0 whitewash "twice" hanging up with his two 1 to 0 victories in 1923 and his 2 to 1 win over the Crimson two years ago when the nine battled for 15 innings up at Pitkin field.

Harvard could do practically nothing with Carroll, making only three hits besides Samborski's homer, and two of these one-base bingles being of a scratchy order. Onie struck out 11 scratch batters in the first seven innings, fanning two men in the first and three frames and retiring the side on strikes in the seventh.

Harvard used two pitchers, Phil Spaulding and Johnny Toulmin. Against Spaulding the Purple made seven of its 10 hits and got all its runs. Toulmin was hit hard at the finish, but at the windup after two strikes had been made against the Harvard pitcher, he Todd moved into the deep left field under a tremendous drive by "two" Walsh, turned just in the nick of time, shot up his hand and pulled down what was indeed labeled for a triple and a blow, apparently worth two more runs for the Barry travelers.

RUTH AND YANKS VS. SISLER AND BROWNS IN FIGHT FOR LEAD

St. Louis Advanced to Within Game and One-Half First Place by Defeating World Champions 1—Braves Defeat League Leading Reds in Nat

NEW YORK, May 15.—A general war is on in the big leagues. Ruth and the Yankees are engaged in classic struggle with Sisler and the Browns for first place in the American, while five other clubs jockey in battle for third position. The Giants and Cubs are fighting for second place in the National, with Cincinnati one leap ahead and trying to shake off a Boston bulldog.

The Browns advanced to within a game and one-half of first place by beating Walter Heist and Phipps hard, while Shocker held the champions hitless until the sixth, after which he breezed in under an 11 to 1 score. George Sisler responded to New York's cordial welcome after a year's absence with three hits and splendid base running.

Fabe Ruth, in a spectacular setting, which included a parade of marines and sailors and the raising of the world's championship banner, received his baseball diploma and then faced the cold world. The sky gray struck out on three picked balls and dropped a fly in the first inning, but later his nervousness and was passed twice, hit safely and threw Sisler out at home.

The crack of a single from Pinch Hitter Terry's bat in the eighth inning awoke the Giants from a week's doze and they beat Chicago in the last

The North End club would like to hear from the Young Joffres of South Lowell, the Merrimacks, Celtics, Butler A. A., Kittredge's Pats, Outleaves, T.R., and T's of No. Billerica, Wanderers, Aca Independents. The North End will play Kittredge's Helminis on the South common next Sunday, afternoon. bers of the Church Sunday School league and will hold their first practice at Lincoln park tonight. The following are asked to be present: H. Harris, Brand, H. Cohen, Ryers, Sandler, J. Harris, Debrinsky, Steinberg, Herson, Zell, and M. Cohen.

The Chestnut Warriors will play the Aca Nine Sunday on the North common. Games are wanted with other 14-year-old teams in the city, the Shamrocks, Chisox, Sacred Heart and Pirates preferred. Practice will be held at Shedd park at 6 o'clock this evening.

A few days ago the Cloverleaf Juniors came out with a statement that they did not consider the defeat as legal, as they were an 11-12-year-old team. The Pirates do not blame them for this, for through a mistake they played the Belvidere Pirates, a 12-14-year-old team. Last Sunday the Pirates met and defeated the Belvidere Seminoles for the second time within a week. The Pirates played them with eight men, some of whom were substitutes. At the end of the ninth the score was 5 to 3 in favor of the Pirates. The manager of the Seminoles protested that it was only the eighth inning and the Pirates gave in, losing the game for the Pirates, as the Seminoles later claimed that a tie score existed.

The U.V.M.L. baseball team will play the state infirmity team at Tewksbury next Saturday. All players are requested by Manager E. M. Lockwood to report at the North common for practice this evening. The team will occupy the gymnasium Saturday at 1:30 p. m. sharp.

Robby Jones, the open champion, is competing from the qualifying test.

SILESIA DEFEAT DORCHESTER TEAM

The free-bitting Silesias took the measure of Dorchester last night, in a five-inning game at the North Chelmsford baseball grounds. The score stood six to nothing against them in the third, but the will men loosened up in their half of this frame and made the score 7-6 with the edge in their favor. Just to see the contest, they blanked Dorchester in their half and then came back and turned in five more runs, the final score reading 12 to 6, when the game was called because of darkness.

Both teams fielded loosely, failing the pitchers when they should have been airtight. The work of Silesia with the willow made a total of 14 hits in the game, with Greenhalgh being the star of the swashmen with three safeties, one a double, to his credit. The score:

CARPENTIER CONFIDENT OF BEATING GIBBONS

CHICAGO, May 15.—Confident and in good condition, Georges Carpentier, French ring idol, settled down today at his quarters in Michigan City, Ind., for the strenuous training period to fit him for his bout, May 31, with Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight.

Abandoning his plan to spend several days here in preliminary training, Carpentier left for his training camp a few hours after his arrival here from New York.

Carpentier on his arrival here said two weeks of training would fit him for the bout. "I am bigger and I am stronger and I feel better than ever," he asserted. "I am in excellent condition. I trained hard for the fight with Townley in Vienna and I trained on the ship coming over."

He smiled when asked if he thought he could knock Gibbons out. "That I cannot say, but I think I will win," he told questioners. "I am punching hard, I'm then when I fought Dempsey."

The match with Gibbons, in connection with which legal action is threatened by Billy Gibson, Tunney's manager, will be gone through with by Carpentier at any date agreeable. They remain here until after July 1, to accommodate Tunney, the manager said.

TO VOTE ON PLAYER-WRITER RULE

NEW YORK, May 15.—Tennis followers are looking forward to the action of members of the University Heights Tennis club who will vote tonight to determine the sentiment of the club on the player-writer interpretation of the amateur rule as adopted by the United States Lawn Tennis association at its February meeting.

Members of the West Side Tennis club last night, by a vote of 188 to 155, decided the club to support the interpretation adopted by the U.S.L.T.A. Of 52 members who voted from the floor after hearing the discussion, 48 voted to support Thilen. The other votes were by proxy.

The special meeting of the U.S.L.T.A. to reconsider the ruling recommended by President Wightman of the association, has not yet been called by the executive committee. Previous to its vote on the interpretation last night, the West Side club unanimously endorsed the action of President Wightman in suggesting that the executive committee call such a meeting.

ORDINANCE MAY RUN IN KENTUCKY DERBY

NEW YORK, May 15.—Ordinance, son of Ormond and Penn Rock, who set a mile record of 1:35 2-5 at the Jamaica track in beating Wise Counsel yesterday, may be entered in the Kentucky Derby.

August Belmont, owner of Ordinance, on his way to his nursery stand in Kentucky, did not see his colt's victory, but a telegram from Louis Fausel, his trainer, requesting permission to enter the horse in the Derby was sent soon after he dashed a winner. Mr. Belmont's reply has not been received.

NEVILLE HOUSE GROOMED
NEW YORK, May 15. Neville Morse, breakneck winner, ineligible for the Kentucky Derby, will be groomed for the historic race to be run at Churchill Downs later in the season. Trainer A. B. Gordon announced at the Jamaica track yesterday.

The colts run continuously since 1877, is open to three-year-old fillies only, and is now run at a distance of one and one-eighth miles. It had a value of over $100,000 last year.

WILL PLAY REMAINING GAMES IN LAWRENCE

The senior division of the Shawheen A.A. having finished a very successful season by winning the state championship on Saturday last, and defeating the team of J. & P. Coates on Sunday, at Lynn, will play their few remaining games in Lawrence, and commencing on Saturday next, at Balmoral field, will be given over to baseball.

George M. Wallace, president of the Shawheen A.A., has made arrangements with the Lawrence Independents and throughout the summer they will represent the Shawheen A.A. in a series of 20 games to be played Saturday afternoon at Balmoral field. A new diamond is being laid out there and next Saturday, May 17, at 6 o'clock, the first game in the series will be played with the Abbot Worsted team of Forre Village. As the Abbot Worsted have been one of the strongest opponents of the Shawheen A.A. at soccer, this baseball game will continue a long standing rivalry.

Manager McMahon, has arranged a schedule with the strongest teams in the state for the Saturday games at Balmoral field and he believes that the series will produce a high standard of baseball for local fans.

Saturday after next, May 24, he has arranged a game with the New England Telephone team of Medford, members of the Boston Twilight league. The Lawrence Independents have finally been threatened with the engagement of Spaulding, a former member of the Red Sox, who will pitch the Independents during the coming season.

The commodious grandstand at Balmoral field and the excellent turf playing conditions will make these games enjoyable for spectators. Players alike and with the exception of the team that the Independents have this year, playing against opponents of an equally high standard series of hard fought games is sure throughout the summer.

The hand that rocks the cradle—

by The Veteran Motorist

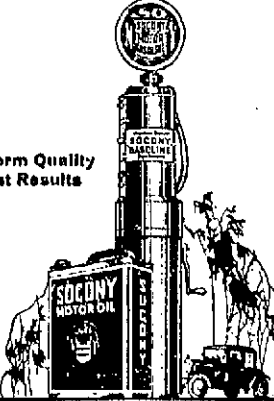

THE other day, driving down from Albany, I had a flat at Red Hook, and, out of idle curiosity, I began to remark, as they drove up to the garage for a fill of Socony, the number of women who were driving their own cars, not only taking a pleasure ride for themselves, but giving the whole family a needed airing. And there was a really surprising number of young mothers leaving the cares of home behind, but not the baby—baby in his new-fangled auto cradle, and mother, fresh and alert, taking in the scenery, and both obviously having a good time.

To my mind it is almost instinctive for careful mothers who drive their own cars to select Socony Gasoline and Motor Oil, and especially, almost by instinct, to count upon the constant courtesy and the ever-present readiness to help in an emergency, which is characteristic of all Socony employees.

After all, mothers are the same in everything they do. They know what's best for the baby, and for the same reason they are quick to select and prescribe Socony Gasoline and Socony Motor Oil as a balanced diet for the family car. And they know the dependence of Socony service—courtesy and helpfulness anywhere and everywhere along the road.

Journment Subject to Call of Chairman, Sen. Walsh of Montana

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The senate committee today tentatively closed hearings on the naval oil leases, which have constituted many colorful chapters in American legislative history since they began last October. Adjournment was taken, subject to call of the chairman. Senator Walsh of Montana, the committee chairman, said he had no more witnesses to call, and would not ask for further hearings, unless the courts should compel Harry E. Sinclair to return and answer the questions to which he has heretofore refused to respond. Senator Spencer, republican, Miss Giff, indicated there was a possibility he might ask later that one of the pieces of additional testimony be added to the record.

COMMON SENSE

When a merchant advertises his wares in a newspaper, he does not appeal to the paper, but to its readers. He solicits the patronage of those readers whether he agrees with the policy of the paper or not. To refrain from advertising in a paper of wide circulation simply because he does not agree with the editor on all public questions, is not using common sense. It is a form of business suicide. It has sent many short-sighted business men into bankruptcy. A dealer might as well put a sign over his store notifying all who do not think as he does that he does not want their patronage. Readers of newspaper advertisements know when and where their patronage is welcome.

"After the formidable tidal wave which has swamped French politics," said M. Herriot, "the people have need to get back their breath and the elected deputies to be classified in well defined groups. Until then, I shall observe serious reserve and take no attitude of decision. I am leaving today on a short trip."

BRAINTREE MAN WAS DIZZY AT THE WHEEL

In district court this morning, George W. Hayes of Braintree was fined $100 for operating an automobile in a drunken condition. The charge was made by the influence of liquor. A charge of drunkenness was placed on file.

Hayes was arrested on May 3 by Traffic Officers Paul Spillman and Daniel Brennan, when they saw he was unable to make headway through traffic in Central street. When first arraigned on the charges, he pleaded not guilty, but changed his plea this morning.

Reported Sale of Hood Property

as yet but did not deny that his company is purchasing the property. He simply did not care to talk about it at this time.

The Hood property in Thetford street is one of the most up-to-date industrial plants in the city and is ideally located for any business, being on the main track of the southern division of the Boston & Maine railroad and close to the industrial section of the city.

The building was erected many years ago by the late Charles I. Hood, whose main product, Hood's Sarsaparilla, was internationally advertised and known throughout the world. Hood's Sarsaparilla was without doubt the most popular product of its kind manufactured and had the largest sale. Through the advertising and sale of this product the fame of this city was broadcast throughout the world. It being said that "the city, village or town in any country of the world where the word 'Sarsaparilla' was not linked with Hood and Lowell, was uncivilized."

Up to a year and a half ago, the manufacture of this product was one of the most important industries of the city. Following the death of Charles I. Hood, the company was sold to W. T. Warner Company, Incorporated, of New York, and 18 months ago the Lowell plant was closed and the machinery transferred to New York state. The reason for the transfer was reported to be the high cost of raw materials which entered in the manufacture of sarsaparilla.

The magnificent building, however, still stands as a monument to the industry of the late Charles I. Hood. He developed it from a small beginning to the world-famous position it occupied upon his death.

It has been rumored many times during the past year that out-of-town industries were attempting to purchase the property, but for some reason sales failed to materialize.

Lynch, faithful friar of Bishop Delany assembly, Rev. John H. Healey, O.F.M., who is in charge of the mission in St. Michael's church, will respond to the toast, "The Church," at the dinner following the fourth degree exemplification next Sunday. Rev. Fr. Healey is one of the country's most forceful and eloquent pulpit orators.

Suspended

Action Follows Recent Raid
on Russian Soviet Trade
Mission in Berlin

BERLIN, May 15.—(By the Associated Press) Dr. Weiss, chief of the espionage bureau of the Berlin police, has been suspended from service pending a clearing up of the circumstances surrounding the recent raid on the Russian Soviet trade mission here. This is the first step taken toward the satisfaction demanded by the Soviet government in consequence of the raid.

Dr. Weiss, who is known as an arch-enemy of communism and a zealous red hunter, personally led the raid upon the trade delegation headquarters in an alleged search for the communist leader, Hosenfeldt, wanted by the German government on a charge of treason.

The German nationalistic papers are enraged over the suspension of the espionage chief, which they term a "kow tow" to the Bolsheviks.

LIMIT BISHOPS' TENURE

M. E. Conference Adopts Resolution Calling for Term of Eight Years

SPRINGFIELD, May 15.—The limitation to eight years of the bishops' tenure in any one area residence in this country, formerly indefinite, was approved by the Methodist Episcopal general conference here today. The change was regarded as radical, and opponents of the measure said it would decrease the effectiveness of Episcopal supervision.

The resolution as adopted reads: "The general conference instructs the committee on Episcopacy that in assigning the shall have in mind the principle of a maximum tenure of eight years in any given residence."

The resolution affects only the coming quadrennium, but a memorial for making the principle permanent is under consideration by the Episcopacy committee. Among the bishops who may be affected by the ruling are Bishops Joseph P. Berry of Philadelphia, Theodore S. Henderson of Detroit, Luther B. Wilson of New York, Edwin H. Hughes of Malden, and William F. McDowell of Washington. Petitions for the retention of Bishops Hughes and Wilson have been filed by delegates from their respective areas.

"The Episcopacy committee has found that too long continued occupation of a residence does not make for the most fruitful service by the bishop or for the fullest development of the area," said Dr. D. G. Downey, chairman of the committee. "The change suggests"

HOUSE OVERRIDES OPPOSITION OF PRES. COOLIDGE AND ADOPTS REPORT ON IMMIGRATION BILL

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Overriding the opposition of President Coolidge, the house today adopted the conference report on the immigration bill, which would make July 1, this year, the effective date of Japanese exclusion.

The senate now will be called upon to act, after which the bill will go to President Coolidge for signature. His course has not been determined.

In adopting the report the house developed an overwhelming majority against any delay in putting into effect quickly the Japanese provision, which the administration had sought to delay in order that diplomatic negotiations might be entered into in an effort to settle the question.

Claiming that he was under the influence of "dope," administered in food while dining with a friend in this city last January, George J. Kennedy, 27, pleaded not guilty to two counts of breaking and entering and larceny in district court this morning. After a lengthy trial, in which several witnesses introduced evidence that Kennedy masqueraded as a meter inspector for the local gas light company, and under this pretense entered houses and stole jewelry and other property, he was found guilty and ordered committed to the house of correction for a term of six months.

Although the thefts were committed last January, Kennedy was not apprehended until May 7 last when he was taken into custody in Middlesex street by Sergt. Philip Dwyer. He had been in Boston, New Bedford, Provi-

Decision Denies Right of President to Issue Pardon
in Civil Contempt Case

CHICAGO, May 15.—(By the Associated Press) The right of the president of the United States to pardon in a civil contempt case, was denied today in an opinion signed by Federal District Judges George A. Carpenter and James A. Wilkerson, in the Phillip Grossman case which was considered before the Daugherty investigating committee.

The opinion held that Grossman should be taken into custody on sentence of a year in jail for contempt decreed by former Federal Judge K. M. Landis. Grossman was sentenced for contempt in a prohibition case.

Stone Refuses to Talk
WASHINGTON, May 15.—Attorney General Stone declined to comment today on the action of Federal Judges Carpenter and Wilkerson in Chicago who denied the right of the president to issue a pardon in civil contempt proceedings.

The case was regarded at the department of justice as raising technical legal questions which none of the attorney general's staff could decide without first having given the questions thorough study.

OIL WITNESSES FAIL TO REACH WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The work of the special oil grand jury in the District of Columbia supreme court, was slowed up again today through the failure of a number of witnesses from distant points to reach Washington.

A dozen or more are under subpoena and some of them are expected here tomorrow, including J. E. Benton, cashier of the First National bank of El Paso, Tex., and New Mexico witnesses are summoned in connection with the investigation of the financial transactions of Albert B. Fall during and after the period he was secretary of the interior and particularly at the time the leases of the naval oil reserves were granted to Harry E. Sinclair and Edward L. Doheny.

Dr. George O. Smith, director of the geological survey, was the principal witness today. He testified before the senate oil committee that he had a prominent part in initiating the program adopted during the Taft administration of setting aside oil lands to insure a future fuel supply for the navy. He also told the senate investigators he had not been consulted about Sinclair and Doheny leases before they were executed by Fall.

BREAK GROUND FOR CINDER RUNNING TRACK AT ALUMNI FIELD

Headmaster Henry Harris Turns First Spade of Earth on Location for High School Track—Many Interested Persons Witness Ceremony

The first spadeful of earth on the location for the new cinder running track for the high school at Alumni field, was turned this afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Headmaster Henry H. Harris. In the presence of members of the school track team, high school officials, officers of the Alumni association and members of the chamber of commerce, Rotary and Lions' clubs, who are in a large measure responsible for the bond issue which allows the construction of the track at this time.

The honor of turning the first sod was assigned to Mr. Harris not only because of his position as headmaster of the school, but also in view of his office as president of the Alumni association, which purchased the field for the school as an athletic home for baseball, football and track and field games.

Harvey W. Tarbell, local landscape gardener, is the contractor who will construct the track and will commence the work at once. It already has been staked out in compliance with plans drawn up in the office of the city engineer and while it will not be an exact oval in shape, it will approximate one and be of the regulation 440-yard distance with a 120-yard straightaway.

In every respect the track will be first-class construction and persons who have seen the track at Andover academy, built by Mr. Tarbell, can get a good idea of its finished appearance. Construction will go down to a depth of about two feet and the middle of June.

HENRY H. HARRIS
track will be built of heavy and fine cinders with a top binder to hold the surface solidly.
The completion date is more or less a matter of conjecture and the delivery of cinders will be the biggest obstacle to overcome, but it is hoped that the track will be ready for use about the middle of June.

SEN. WHEELER IS EXONERATED

Borah Committee Frees Montana Man of Charges—Vote 4 to 1

Finds No Acceptance of Fee for Legal Service Before Interior Department

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A report exonerating Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, "from any and all violations" of the statutes under which he was indicted at Great Falls, Mont., has been submitted to the senate by Chairman Borah of the special committee which investigated the charges against him.

The report, which was signed by four of the five members of the committee, was confined to the question of Senator Wheeler's guilt or innocence and made no mention of the indictment or the preceding activities in Montana of Blair Loan at the direction, he testified, of Secretary Lockwood of the republican national committee.

Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, dissented from the committee majority view as to its function, holding that it was not instructed to pass upon the guilt or innocence of Senator Wheeler, but upon the question whether the indictment was justified by the evidence, or, as charged, on the floor, by the Montana member, was the result of a "frameup." He reserved the right to submit a separate report.

The majority report, which Chairman Borah announced, he intended to discuss later, said the committee had found that Senator Wheeler had "neither received nor accepted, nor agreed to receive or accept, nor negotiation whatever, directly or indirectly, for any services rendered, or to be rendered," in relation to any case "in which the United States was a party, or directly or indirectly interested."

WAR ISSUE UP FOR DEBATE

Attitude of Methodist Church

Removal of "Amusement Ban" and Election of Bishop Other Matters

SPRINGFIELD, May 15.—The attitude of the Methodist church toward war, the proposed removal of the "amusement ban," and the election of new bishops, are the chief matters of interest to the delegates of the 29th quadrennial general conference as today's session opens.

Yesterday the committee on the state of the church voted to recommend to the main body the "separation" of the church from all wars. Now that the issue of North and South unification has been settled in the affirmative, the war issue is considered the most important of any to be decided.

"TIZ" FOR TENDER, SORE, TIRED FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, hot, smelly, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz."

"Tiz" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "Tiz" is magical; "Tiz" is grand; "Tiz" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired.

Get a box at any drug or department store, and get relief for a few cents.

elided. A minority report of the committee proposing that the church go on record as supporting wars in self-defense or in defense of humanity, will be presented with the majority report; and a sharp division of sentiment is certain to be revealed.

Until the committee on the Episcopacy has reported on the number of Episcopal residences to be administered during the next quadrennium, the matter of elections will be held at a standstill. A powerful group has been fighting in the committee to have no new bishops elected but certain Episcopal areas must be eliminated if that group is to have its way, and strong opposition was encountered yesterday from delegates in areas whose elimination was suggested.

The committee on the state of the church still has under consideration the question of eliminating the amusement ban from the Methodist discipline, but a report to the conference is expected shortly.

A report on the consolidation of the church benevolence boards will be made by the committee on temporal economy, possibly by the first of next week.

PLUTONIC PAVING LAST WORD IN ROADS

Curiously exists in many quarters of public discussion in Lowell and vicinity following the announcement that a new highway construction material, eddily christened "plutonic pavement," is to be employed in the rebuilding of the new Princeton street boulevard. The fact that a Lowell highway is to be the very first public thoroughfare in the United States to receive the new paving creation, has naturally attracted the attention of numerous citizens and taxpayers who money pays for new road construction work in Lowell. Many are interested to know just what really new features are to be found in the approved "plutonic pavement" proposition guaranteeing to improve present-day highway constructions familiar to all who use modern thoroughfares.

The Sup has obtained a detailed description of the new pavement with the appellation of ancient derivation. Taxpayer-readers will be able to form some idea about the material to be used on the Princeton boulevard improvement, which may enable the curious individual to make comparisons with other highway composition make-ups.

"Plutonic pavement" is constructed by a new process. It derives its name from the material used for the wearing surface, which is plutonic rock, geologically regarded as of igneous origin, solidified and crystallized at some depth below the surface. For this pavement the preferred plutonic rock is granite, which combines in its crystalline structure characteristics which render it resilient to wear, of great strength and easily wrought to rectangular shapes which can be set to a true plane.

Granite Blocks Standard

The standard pavement for heavy traffic streets in large cities is a granite block pavement, constructed in accordance with the standard specifications of the American Society for Municipal Improvement, and because of its long life and small maintenance would be the standard in the smaller municipalities and for state highways, if the first cost were anywhere near the cost of other pavements.

To meet this economic condition and make possible a pavement surface of blocks of plutonic rock at a price within the means of state highway commissioners, plutonic pavement has been originated. The standard granite block consists of a concrete foundation six inches to nine inches deep, on which is spread one inch of sand or dry mortar for a cushion in which the granite blocks are set, after which the joints are filled with cement grout, mixed one to one, or with a bituminous joint filler, making a pavement 12 to 15 inches deep. By this method, the granite blocks must be of uniform size, particularly as to depth, resulting in a much larger expenditure of labor than is required to produce blocks with more variation in size.

The Pavers' Formula

Plutonic pavement is constructed by spreading on the compacted sub-grade four inches of concrete mixed dry, in which rectangular plutonic blocks, four to six inches in depth and three to six inches in width, are set in such a manner as to bond thoroughly with the dry concrete. The blocks are rammed to a true surface, then water is applied gradually, by using a spray nozzle, in sufficient quantity to wet the concrete enough to cause the initial set. This is immediately followed by application of the cement grout as provided for standard granite block pavement.

This plutonic method provides a concrete slab, faced with plutonic blocks nine inches in depth, which, in comparison with the standard granite block pavement of fifteen inches in depth, where a concrete foundation nine inches in depth is specified, results in a reduction in the amount of excavation of 40 per cent, a reduction in the amount of concrete of 55 per cent, the elimination of the sand or mortar cushion, and the elimination also of about 50 per cent of the labor required to manufacture the plutonic blocks. The cost of transportation on these blocks is the same as for the standard blocks. The cost of the completed pavement by this new method ranges from 50 to 60 per cent of the cost of standard granite block pavement, and closely approximates the cost of reinforced concrete of equal depth, it is claimed.

First Laid in 1921

In 1921, a short "plutonic" section of the Groton-Lowell highway, a state-county-town project, was constructed in Westford, by the highway construction, in accordance with specifications prepared by Herbert E. Fletcher, consulting engineer for the town of Westford and inventor of the new paving construction. The Groton road "plutonic sample" was located in part over an old bog and in part on hard soil. No provision was made for drainage. The highway is used by large trucks loaded to the limit allowed by law and hauling from extensive quarries adjacent to the highway. There has been thus far no indication of weakness or failure in the "sample" pavement due to heavy traffic.

Lowell Watched It Wear

Lowell's acquisition of the first contract installation of the "plutonic" to be made since the new road-construction composition was introduced and placed on the markets of the world from Westford headquarters, was brought about as follows:

While the experimental highway in Groton was under construction in Westford, the work was examined and the process studied by the Lowell city engineer, superintendent of streets and other officials of the municipality. This examination and study, together with the present condition of the highway, after being subjected to heavy loads, led Mayor John J. Donovan, City Engineer Stephen Kearner, the board of public service and the Lowell chamber of commerce to advocate the adoption of plutonic pavement for the reconstruction of one and three-tenths miles of the Princeton boulevard. This boulevard is an important part of the state highway leading from Lowell to the New Hampshire state line and connecting there with the Daniel Webster highway to the White mountains.

HELD MAY FESTIVAL IN CHURCH VESTRY

A most successful and enjoyable May festival was held last evening in the vestry of the Worthen Street Baptist church by the members of that church. At 6:30 o'clock a beautiful supper was served those present, Miss Lucy Stevenson and Mrs. Thelma Sutherland assisted by Miss Alice Chase, Mrs. H. J. Wilson, Miss Gertrude Fuller, Mrs. Harry D. Carr and Mrs. Pratt were in charge of the supper.

An entertainment, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections as well as novelty numbers followed the supper. Mrs. Everett Prescott was in charge of the candy table which was conducted during the evening.

FOR BENEFIT OF THE CUNNINGHAM FUND

A most enjoyable and successful dancing party under the auspices of the Pawtucketville Improvement association, the proceeds of which will be added to the Cunningham fund, was held last night at Pawtucket boat house with a large number attending. Since the hall, tickets, and orchestra were offered gratis, the entire proceeds will go toward the fund.

General dancing was enjoyed until midnight, with Campbell's orchestra furnishing the music. At the intermission specialty numbers were given by the Carr children and refreshments were served by members of the committee.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of the following: C. F. Cronin, chairman; William H. Rigby, treasurer; Charles F. McQuillan, secretary; James A. Clifton, floor director; Mrs. Harry Roberts, Mrs. Patrick Brosnan, Mrs. P. J. Mooney, Mrs. John J. McManmon, John Cogger, Edward Farrell and Clarence Lord.

Contributions recently received for the Pawtucketville share of the fund were as follows: Rev. John J. Powers, $25; Lavina C. Carney, $10; John J. Hickson, $5.

The tickets and printed matter for the dance were generously contributed by the Mahoney Printing Co.

DISPLAY OF BOOKS AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Original stories, dealing with members of the animal kingdom, Brothers Rabbit, Squirrel, Cat and Sisters Mouse and Rat, printed in gaily illustrated

booklets, some in colors, the compositions of Junior students of the Lowell State Normal school, are on display in the exhibition room of the school. The books are all printed by hand, and the drawings samples of free-hand work are the products of several weeks of work on the part of 140 junior pupils of the school. The stories are all most entertaining, being as appealing to the grownups as to the children, and a credit to the young ladies who compiled them.

RAMBLE ALONG THE MIDDLESEX CANAL

"A Modern Ramble Along the Middlesex Canal" was the topic of a very entertaining and illuminating paper read by Mr. Edward B. Carney, well known Lowell banker, before the members of the Lowell Historical society, in Memorial building, last evening. The meeting was open to invited guests and was largely attended, many interested visitors being obliged to stand during the Carney recital of old-time Middlesex county scenes and happenings.

New members were admitted to the society rolls last evening, as follows: Miss Leslie Adams, Mrs. Harriet C. Allen, J. Harry Boardman, Miss Minnie C. Carpenter, Miss Ruth Duncan, Henry B. Fluke, Miss Sarah C. Fluke, Lieut. Allen Hobbs, Mrs. Louise Allen Hobbs, Charles H. Hoson, Mrs. Borthia Allen Logan, Elmore I. MacPhie, Mrs. Etta P. MacPhie, Miss Ingrid Manson, Miss Lizzie A. ROTARIANS CONVENTION

Toledo, Ohio, Man Pleads
for Greater Friendship
Between Nations

TORQUAY, England, May 15.—"When nations, like individuals come to know and to understand one another, it will be increasingly difficult to embroil them with one another," Frank Mulholland of Toledo, Ohio, told the convention of Rotarians of the British Isles here today. Mr. Mulholland, in past international president of Rotary and with International President Guy Gundaker of Philadelphia, in making an official visit to the members of Rotary International Association for Great Britain and Ireland now in convention here.

"Through Rotary, mankind is finding means of substituting friendly accord among nations for orgies of fear, suspicion and apprehension," he said. "The great ameliorating fact of international acquaintance and friendship is coming into the world, growing into the lives of men, teaching them how to live so that their elbows will not jab the other fellow. Some day Rotary friendship will make sunshine enough to drive up the fogs of grief. Some day Rotary friendliness will wipe the lines of aversion from the brow of commerce. Some day Rotary friendliness will supplant the greed, the ignorance, the jealousy and suspicion that today hold this old world in fear behind the darkening clouds of adversity."

Lay Delegate to Methodist
Conference at Springfield
Commits Suicide

SPRINGFIELD, May 15.—Roger T. Rahan, 28, a lay delegate to the general Methodist conference from the West China conference, committed suicide in his room at a local hotel some time last night, and his body was found today. He had taken poison. His act is attributed to ill health, coupled with depression from which he had suffered since arriving in this country.

Mr. Rahan was a teacher in the Christian school at Chungking, West China. A letter addressed to the general conference was found in his room in which he explained the reasons for his act. He leaves a wife and two children.

ESCALATORS FOR LADDER-SHY FISH PROPOSED

SEATTLE, Wash., May 15.—Escalators for ladder-shy fish were proposed here yesterday to solve the problem of building a 30-foot dam in the Columbia river $100,000,000 power project without blocking the migrations of the salmon in their native habitat. Models will be erected to determine whether they prefer to climb a ladder or be shot through a turbine elevator. The salmon annually go up the river to spawn and then return to deep water.

TO PREVENT ANOTHER WHOLESALE EXECUTION

BATON ROUGE, La., May 15.—A bill to limit capital punishment in Louisiana will be introduced in the present session of the legislature, as a result of the hanging of six Italians last Friday at Amite for the slaying of one person. Representative L. L. Williams of New Orleans announced today. He said his measure would prevent another wholesale execution such as that at Amite.

A CITY'S TRIBUTE

The schools all closed for the day and New Orleans turned out en masse to greet Mrs. Faith McDonogh Leister of Tiffin, O., when she arrived. It was an amazing tribute to the great-grandniece of John McDonogh, founder of New Orleans' public school system. Years before, McDonogh had come down from the north, made his fortune in the southland, and on his death left his millions for the erection of 31 public schools. Here are school children, wearing costumes of McDonogh's day, greeting Mrs. Leister.

DEATH OF DR. SUN

Expected to Result in the Collapse of South China Government

HONG KONG, May 15. (By the Associated Press).—With the death of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the visionary leader of the recalcitrant South China government, the capital of Canton is expected to pass into the hands of the Peking government, whose forces for the past year have been battling the troops of the "constitutionalist" president.

With a number of loyal and efficient generals and governmental leaders, it is not considered likely that any of his associates will be able to yield sufficient influence to prevent a collapse of the southern regime. For months, the Sun government has been on the verge of bankruptcy and had only succeeded in financing itself by means of exorbitant taxes, confiscations and the licensing of the gambling and opium traffic. Whether the passing of the southern leader will mean the centralization of Chinese government is unpredictable. Some influential Chinese believe that Sun's death will mean the wiping out of many sectional differences, which have thus far kept the republic in chaos. Others say that new opposition may spring up which will cause a continuation of civil war more devastating than that which has been fought in the south.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

Branch of Order for Women Was Organized Last Evening

Lowell joined the ranks of cities represented in Moosehead Legion, a branch of the Loyal Order of Moose for women, when Lowell Chapter was organized last night at a ladies' night held under the auspices of Lowell Lodge 618, Loyal Order of Moose, in Odd Fellows hall, Middlesex street.

The organization was effected by Mrs. Mary Finney of Haverhill, district worker, and a temporary organization was immediately formed and plans for a permanent organization discussed.

Lowell lodge met in another hall of the same building with Dictator John L. Sullivan presiding. Routine business was transacted and Chairman Ernest P. Parsons of the cemetery committee reported that the lodge grave in Westlawn cemetery would be appropriately decorated on Memorial day.

An entertainment program was given in Hamilton hall and was enjoyed by members of both Lowell Lodge and Lowell Chapter. The program was under the direction of Frank J. Lambert, lodge pianist, and consisted of the following numbers: Piano selections by Miss Juliette Chamberlain, soprano solos by Ernest Harbors, specialty dancing by Miss Mary McQuade, accompanied by Mrs. James Powers; violin solos by Miss Helena Brady, and soft shoe dancing by Charles J. In Their Own Words...

Only five years ago the first package of Rinso was made in Cambridge, Mass., put on a grocer's shelf, sold to an American housewife, and used in place of bar soap, to do a weekly wash. Today over a million packages of Rinso are sold every week. What is it about Rinso that has given it this sweeping success?

The following letters, a handful only of the many received by the makers of Rinso, tell in the simple, sincere language of the women themselves just what it is that Rinso does and why it comes as one of the greatest practical discoveries of recent years to the American housewife.

"I SAW AN AD in the street car"

"Not long ago I saw an ad in the street car 'Soaking takes the place of rubbing.' The next day I sent for a box of Rinso and tried it. I was delighted with the result and now wash my children's clothes without any effort whatsoever. I just had to write and tell you how 'wonderful' I think Rinso is and have told several of my friends to try it.

"It is wonderful for scrubbing floors. Without a doubt the best thing I have ever used. I also cleaned my enamel sink with it and it is wonderful."

"MY CLOTHES used to come out so yellowed but now they are snowy white"

"I always had trouble with my clothes—they used to come out so yellowed. Then a friend told me about Rinso. I found it makes a wonderful soap solution I couldn't get any other way. This soapy solution just removed every bit of dirt and then it all rinsed out completely. There was nothing left to yellow the clothes—there couldn't be, because there was no soap to stick—it was all dissolved.

"I am now delighted with my wash—my clothes are always snowy white."

"NO HELP did I get"

"I am doing washings for people who are not able to do it. At first I tried everything. I would say to my husband, 'I hope this helps me, but no help did I get.' My grocer said one day, 'Why don't you try Rinso?' At first I washed from 7 o'clock in the morning until noon. I got so tired, I could not sleep. Now I am through washing and ironing in one day.

"At a demonstration at our store not long ago, I bought a case of the large size package of Rinso. The lady who lives above me asked if I had a machine. I showed her my two hands. I cannot give Rinso enough praise and I would walk a mile for it."

"BOUGHT thirteen boxes at our church fair"

"I bought a package of Rinso just to try it out and used it according to directions, and really the results were marvelous, and I have bought since at our church fair 13 boxes and I have recommended it to my neighbors who are using it with good results.

"Then I found that Rinso is excellent for removing finger prints from white paint and for washing all woodwork. It has cut my housecleaning troubles in half. I will never use anything else, because it is both labor-saving and time-saving."

"THE CHILDREN get ink and shoe polish on their hands"

"Rinso made my clothes clean without rubbing them to pieces on the board. It proved such a help in the laundry that I experimented on the walls and woodwork and now use it for general cleaning. The children get ink and shoe polish on their hands and they take Rinso to wash their hands. I call it 'Rinso the Universal Cleaner!'"

"The MAGIC-LIKE way it cleans paint"

"I feel that my clothes are not clean if I use any other soap or soap powder, but what I particularly praise Rinso for is the magic-like way in which it cleans paint."

"A RATHER Pretty Compliment"

"The other day, after she had finished hanging out her washing, my neighbor remarked, 'There's no getting away from it, that Rinso is the stuff to wash with!' That coming from the mother of two boys who has a none too small washing, is rather a pretty compliment."

A NEW KIND of LAUNDRY SOAP that simply SOAKS dirt out

RINSO is a new kind of soap that dissolves completely—makes a rich soapy solution that gently soaks out all the dirt.

It does away with rubbing soap on the clothes to get them soapy and then rubbing the soapy clothes to get them clean.

Then it rinses out thoroughly leaving no soil in your clothes to make them

gray and dingy. No bits of soap to turn them yellow under the iron.

SCHOOLS OLD AND NEW

Lecture at Normal School by Elementary and Secondary Education Director

"Schools Old and New" was the subject discussed before the pupils of the Lowell State Normal school yesterday afternoon, by Arthur B. Lord, state director of elementary and secondary education.

After explaining that Dr. Payson Smith, who was scheduled to speak yesterday afternoon, was detained by a legislative committee, and therefore unable to come to Lowell, Mr. Lord gave a brief, yet highly instructive lecture, and one that was thoroughly enjoyed by those attending.

"We are hearing a lot of criticism about the schools of today," said Mr.

HUSBAND SAID

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound Made Her Well

East Hardwick, Vermont.—"Last winter I was not able to do any work at all. I had backache, headache, sideache, and was sick all the time for six months. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers, and my husband said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' So I said I would, and he went and got me a dozen bottles. It has done me more good than I can ever tell, and my friends say, 'What have you done to yourself?' You look so well. I tell them it is the Vegetable Compound that makes me so well and strong. There is no use to suffer with backache and pains. I will tell every one what it has done for me."—Mrs. FRED. PRIMO, Route No. 2, E. Hardwick, Vermont.

COMMENCEMENT AT
ROGERS HALL SCHOOL

Exercises of commencement will be held at Rogers Hall school on Tuesday morning, June 3, in the school gymnasium at 10:30 o'clock. Prior to the exercises, a reception will be held beginning at 10 o'clock.

The graduating class consists of the following: Anne Elizabeth Boyd, Martha Elizabeth Cooper, Harriet Candace Cushman, Evelyn Dimeling, Paul Linn Fox, Madeline Fox, Rachel Jane Holt, Kathryn Howell, Mary Elizabeth Hussey, Cecile Gray, Dorothy Anita Le Hutt, Catherine Noyes Leonard, Beatrice May Nichols, Henrietta Margaret Page, Charlotte Louise Rushton, Helen Floyd Shannon, Helen Mary Shepard, Helen Adria Shaver, Gertrude W. Sheldon, Trafothen, Marjorie Louise Wells, Ardis Elise Williams, Harriet Overin Wilson and Mary Gray Wood.

Lord, "and almost invariably, that criticism hinges on the schools of the past. People discussing the schools of today often sigh for the good old days. But the problems today are very much the same as the problems of the past. We often say that the weather is changing, that the old New England winters were different than those experienced today, but with very few exceptions, there is little difference. And so it is with the schools. The people, referring to schools are led to look upon unusual occurrences rather than upon the regular course of things. The people of the past think of the bright lights in their time.

"But we are progressing, and doing so rapidly. From the saddle horse we have come to the train, the automobile and airplanes. We have the radio. In the development of the sciences innumerable things have been accomplished and much progress noted. Similar progress is made in the schools and in education.

"In the school of the past, a rural school was opened and supported by parents of the children who attended the school. Later the town controlled the school and then the pound tax was introduced. Gradually the school came under the direction of the state. The three its were taught, together with a little knowledge of geography, grammar and history. This need of the mar and history. The need of the times requested no more than was then taught. The home life then gave the necessary training in the proper formation of characters. But today the home industries have ceased to exist, although they are needed more than ever. There is a change in the aim of the present day school. The schools today are to impart knowledge to the student.

"The work of the modern school is to teach the 'how,' not the 'what,' Dr. Smith says. The primary function of education is to teach the children how to think, not what to think."

After citing numerous cases illustrating his point, Mr. Lord continued: "Soft practice in athletics makes soft playing. So in studying, soft work makes soft minds. Our lessons must be hard, for life is hard, and we must teach our students how to meet the hardships.

"The success or failure of boys and girls today depends on the problems solved, the ideas grasped and the habits formed in the school and in the home.

"We want to make our problems hard instead of academic; to eliminate the 'if' and the 'suppose.' "English is not merely a case of memorizing. We must teach the pupil to be able to stand on his or her feet and to express thoughts logically and clearly, and to so write them. The work of the modern school is to teach the student the proper way to think. Practical problems and interest in the work before them will accomplish much.

"Training the boys and girls how to think is the big thing in the schools of today. I believe that in the future all examinations will depend on the ability of the pupil to obtain all the statistical matter possible, and his knowledge of the use of such information, rather than the knowledge before memorized, and written at the mid-year and final examinations.

"The cost of education in Massachusetts has doubled in the last few years. Fifty-four million dollars have been expended in the interest of education and for the proper training of the future citizens of America.

"What does the word America mean to you? America to me means a land of homes; homes in which the future of this democracy depends. The second meaning of the word America, means opportunity, the opportunity offered by the system of education.

"Many pupils today do not value the things offered them in education. They take things for granted and think they are their rightful possession. That is not the case with our foreigners. They look upon education as an opportunity. It is our duty to train the foreigners in American ideals, in the ideals of good citizenship, for the good of the commonwealth.

"The schools today offer many advantages, proper heating, lighting, training, outdoor exercises, library facilities, etc. When comparing the schools today, compare the cost and the results of the present-day schools.

"The trouble with many teachers today, is, that although they have been taught the proper way to teach, they revert to the ways of the past rather than practicing modern teaching."

LOWELL MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES' UNION

Vice President Hughes of the Federation of National, State, City and Town Employees addressed on Tuesday evening the members of Lowell Municipal Employees union, gathered in bi-weekly session in Trades and Labor hall. President Daniel Moynihan was in the chair.

The union will send a delegate to the next meeting of the Constitutional Liberty league of Massachusetts, which will be held in Boston on May 20. The guest of the evening reviewed legislative measures affecting municipal employees, describing several bills classified as "unfair." A social hour followed the speaking, songs being given by Joseph Hughes and Joseph Day, with John Boutin starring in soft-shoe dancing.

COMMODORE BALLROOM

There will be dancing at the Commodore ballroom on Thursday street each evening during the remainder of the week. Miner-Doyle's ten-piece orchestra will furnish the music for dancing and all the latest and popular numbers are being featured by this team. Tonight, as an added attraction, Mr. Roana has prepared the services of the Frisco boys, Fred and Smith, who will entertain in exhibition dances. This pair will be at the Commodore on Friday and Saturday evening also. The duo has many new stunts and will be well worth seeing. The admission each evening is 10c.

8 IN 11 BILL ON
SENATE CALENDAR

Local street railwaymen were gratified today to hear that the eight in eleven hour bill, on motion of State Sen. Frothingham had been taken from the table yesterday and placed on the senate calendar for next Tuesday morning.

Car-men throughout the state have been fighting for months for this bill, and they were greatly disappointed a few weeks ago to find that the measure had been tabled. But they continued their efforts to secure action during the present session, and as a result Sen. Frothingham, who two weeks ago moved to have it tabled, yesterday came to the front with the motion to bring it before the senate again for definite action.

K. OF C. DRIVE FOR BUILDING FUND

A well-attended meeting of Lowell Council, 72, Knights of Columbus, was held in Y.M.C.A. hall last night for the purpose of stimulating interest in the drive for funds, which was

It was voted that the grand knight appoint a committee of 13 to take charge of the fund drive. Among the speakers were James C. Kelly, Robert R. Thomas, William F. Thornton, Jack McAdams, Rev. Daniel J. Hoffmann, Lecturer E. F. Slattery, Jr., Dr. McCluskey and Frank Haggerty. Contributions received last evening were as follows: Patrick O'Hearn, $50; McAdams Bros., $50; Walter Guyette, $25. POLICE BAR BERLIN DEMONSTRATORS

BERLIN, May 15.—The police have forbidden the public demonstration in the stadium here planned for May 24 under the leadership of Major General Von Der Goltz as an extension of the idea recently exemplified at Halle in expression of nationalist sentiment. The police assert that experience has failed to show the ability of leaders of such demonstrations to keep their followers from committing excesses despite promises that provocative incidents would be avoided.

A. F. OF L. MUSICIANS OPPOSE K. K. K.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 15.—In common with labor organizations, the American Federation of Musicians will take a stand against the Ku Klux Klan if a resolution presented by W. H. Stevens of Wheeling, W. Va., and later signed by nearly a dozen delegates, is passed by the annual convention in session here.

FRIENDS HONOR HENRY SULLIVAN IN SYRACUSE

In honor of Lowell champion long-distance swimmer, Henry F. Sullivan, fully 150 members of the Lowell Social club connected with the Lamson Co., in Syracuse, N. Y., filled the boxes and front-row seats of the Temple theatre in that city last night when Henry "did his act." All present were loud in their praise of Henry, who found time to shake hands with every member of the club. The theatre witnessed one of the biggest audiences, several hundred being turned away for lack of accommodations. Mr. Sullivan presented every Lowellite an autographed picture. During his stay in Syracuse,

REPORT ON CHARGES AGAINST CONGRESSMEN

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The conclusions of the house committee which has investigated allegations against Representative Langley, republican, Kentucky, recently convicted in a federal court in that state on charge of violating the prohibition law, and Representative Zihlman, republican, Maryland, were ready today for consideration of the house.

The charges against both representatives involving alleged improper use of their influence, were investigated by a grand jury here, which returned an indictment against Rep. Langley, but found no cause for action against Rep. Zihlman, and the house committee has devoted most of its time to taking evidence in the latter's case pending the outcome of the Kentucky trial.

He was the guest of the Lamson management.

GAINED SIXTEEN POUNDS IN WEIGHT

Gratifying Result of Tonic Treatment in an Illness of Several Months' Duration

To check a decline in health, weight and strength and restore the patient to health requires a genuine body-building tonic. This was what was accomplished in the case of Mrs. Catherine Fohert, of No. 613 Bronson St., Watertown, N. Y. She says:

"I had had an attack of influenza and it left me in such a run-down condition that it seemed as though I should never regain my strength. I tried many remedies but they didn't seem to have any effect. I was very pale and could hardly get around the house. In fact I had to lie down frequently and for a period of two months I never left my bed. I couldn't eat substantial food and had to exist on liquids."

"One day a friend suggested Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to me and I began the treatment. There was some improvement after the first box and I continued the treatment until I had taken five boxes in all. In that time I gained sixteen pounds in weight and recovered my appetite. My color was restored and I can do my work without any feeling of weakness. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends as the ideal tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, sixty cents per box, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. A valuable booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free upon request.—Adv.

TO ELIMINATE RADICALISM IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—An all-American conference, representative of 63 national, patriotic, civic and fraternal organizations, was convened here today to co-ordinate efforts to eliminate radicalism and foster Americanism and better citizenship.

The conference, assembled at the invitation of Garland Howell, national director of the national Americanism commission of the American Legion, was called upon to plan a vigorous campaign against "the slackers' oath" and the organization advocating it, and consider the report of the flag conference held here last June with a view to working for proper observance of rules governing use of the Stars and Stripes.

GENERAL STRIKE OF MINERS NEAR ESSEN

DUISBURG, May 15.—A general strike of coal miners has been declared in the Moers district, near Essen. The moderate trade unions have organized patrols to protect those men wishing to continue work. The communists are holding meetings in connection with the movement, but thus far there have been no disorders.

SUPERIOR COURT

The Chelmsford automobile accident case which went to trial in superior court here on Tuesday, still was being heard by Judge Greenhalge and a jury today. Five cases are being tried at the same time, all growing out of a collision last October between cars owned by Chelmsford residents.

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Alleurhu, to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Alleurhu with the understanding that if the first trial bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. A. W. Daws & Co. can supply you.—Adv.

THE IMMIGRATION BILL

Measure Expected to Reach the White House Before End of Current Week

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Quick, almost perfunctory acceptance in both chambers was forecast for the conference report on the immigration bill today, prior to its final consideration by the house, after which the senate will be called upon to act.

Including the clause fixing July 1, this year, as the effective date of the Japanese exclusion provision, which President Coolidge once prevailed upon the conferees to change to March 1, 1925, the measure is expected to reach the White House before the end of the current week.

THREAT OF EXPULSION

Split Among Theatrical Managers as Result of Formation of New Organization

NEW YORK, May 15.—Members of the Producing Managers' association who formed the Managers' Protective association in order to sign the $8-20 agreement with the Actors' Equity association faced a threat of expulsion from the parent organization today.

The Producing Managers' association in a statement issued last night stated that inasmuch as these members had proceeded against the majority opinion, they have violated the by-laws and were liable to expulsion. Lee Shubert, leading spirit of the new organization, informed of this move, ridiculed the idea. The struggle will revolve around the effort of the members of the new association who still retain technical membership in the P.M.A., to regain their share of the $200,000 paid to it in its treasury.

PELHAM BUS LINE

Dracut citizens are anxiously awaiting the outcome of a hearing to be held in Pelham, N. H., May 21, under the auspices of the town selectmen, to ascertain the sentiment in regard to a proposed new automobile bus line. It would start from Pelham, include Mammoth road to Lowell and return by way of Bridge street, granting a "belt line." The busses would pass through Collinsville and Dracut Centre.

FOLEY NAMED TAMMANY HEAD

Only Two of 70 Members of Executive Committee Voted Against Him

Model of "New Era" Type Tammany Has Been Moulding for Years

NEW YORK, May 14.—A new chief holds the reins of power in Tammany Hall today. James A. Foley, surrogate and step-son-in-law of the late Charles F. Murphy, has been chosen to carry on the policies inaugurated by the man primarily responsible for the rise of Foley himself and the infusion of new blood in the Clear organization.

TAKING THE FIRST STEPS

"How you carry that child—Look out! Don't sit her down that way!"

Alma Mann was constantly interrupting Mr. Mann's parades with the first-born.

And well she might keep a careful eye, for the posture of the child is most important.

For several months the baby should remain lying. If it has properly developed by the third month, it should be able to hold the head up without aid.

Its back and head should always be supported by the person holding the child. By the end of the sixth month the child should be able to sit up without support.

leaving an office that carries a salary of $15,000 to assume the leadership in New York's oldest and most powerful organization which has never paid a salary. He probably will resume law practice.

Tammany men say Surrogate Foley is a model of the "new era" type of politician which the hall has been moulding in recent years.

His predecessors were mostly men of humble parentage and lowly environment; men born in the city's teeming tenement and waterfront districts who, by sheer force of physical prowess and inherent political acumen, fought their way to place and power.

Charles F. Murphy was one of these. Richard Croker, John Kelly and William Marcy ("Boss") Tweed were others, and so on backward through many of the years of Tammany's existence.

There was the school of hard knocks. Their tutors were men often gang leaders and ward heelers.

Murphy, "the sphinx," was the highest development of that old school. His brain pushed him up the ladder and his brain balanced him on the top.

It was he who encouraged the "new era" type of politician and founded the school from which such men as Surrogate Foley, Governor Alfred E. Smith, Supreme Court Justice Robert F. Wagner and Senator James J. Walker, leader of the state senate, and others, graduated.

Thus the election of Surrogate Foley as chairman of Tammany's main legislative body is viewed by political leaders as the passing of a regime and the ascension of a new kind of "boss" to the controlling throttle of probably the most powerful machine in municipal politics in America.

At an age when his predecessors were winning votes by overcoming opponents with their fists, Foley and those of his ilk were winning votes by enacting progressive laws in the state legislature.

The new chieftain is 42 years old, a graduate of the local public schools and, with honors, of the College of the City of New York and the New York Law school. At the age of 25 he entered politics, and straightway was elected to the assembly. Six years later he was elevated to the state senate where he remained until, in 1919, he was elected to the surrogate's bench by a plurality of 15,000, when every other democrat on the ticket went down to defeat.

In the assembly, where he was floor-

About this time the child will already indicate a desire to creep and, if normal, will have started doing so. By the ninth month, it should be trying to stand up and before the end of a year should be able to take some steps. Many babies are walking within a year, while others take up to 15 months.

It is unwise to encourage the baby to walk without some mechanical contrivance to aid while the bones are gaining their proper strength. Also the child should be allowed to assume the posture it chooses and should not be encouraged to assume any particular position, or to walk before it shows a desire to.

leader, and in the senate, Foley was considered one of the most nimble-minded and glib-tongued orators in either party. In the constitutional convention he, Governor Smith and Justice Wagner scored forensic victories over the best legal talent of the state.

His record of legislative achievement covers a wide field. He sponsored, in the senate, the first comprehensive bill providing a living wage for women.

He fathered the workmen's compensation law, the eight-hour bill for women, the teachers' salary increase bill, a municipal ownership bill, a measure which created the transit construction commission and a water power development bill giving the state control of all hydro-electric development.

He was the prime mover in legislation which saved New Yorkers an estimated $7,500,000 annually in telephone rate reductions. Always he has been a leader in the fight for "home rule" for this city.

Foley's reputation for reform followed him into the surrogate's office, where one of his first acts was to obtain legislation increasing the fees of revenue of the county by $60,000 a year.

TO ESTABLISH MENTAL HEALTH CLINIC HERE

Through the joint co-operation of the Massachusetts Society for Mental Hygiene and the State Department of Mental Diseases, a mental health clinic is soon to be established in Lowell under state auspices and at state expense.

If interest warrants, two clinics will be conducted, one for children of from two to 16 years of age and the other for older children and adults. The work of both clinics will be preventive rather than curative and will endeavor to nip in the bud early and incipient cases of nervous or mental disorders.

The local clinics will be in charge of a specially trained group of physicians and nurses from the state division of mental hygiene. Details of time and place for the clinics will be announced at the public mass meeting to be held next Tuesday evening in Liberty hall.

Dr. Douglas A. Thom, director of the state division of mental hygiene, under whose direction the clinics will be formed, stated that many children develop harmful and undesirable mental habits in the pre-school age, between 2 and 6 years. This is known as the plastic formative period when habits, temper, tantrums when not is in this same flexible age when given their own way are other examples of these tendencies.

For example, children who are chronically and excessively jealous or pugnacious may be developing a type of personality that will seriously handicap them in later life. Day-dreaming, quickly and capricious food and the Elks club, choose 15 new members from the junior class, will be held on the campus this afternoon. The ceremony of shapping those elected on the back will be carried out as usual. Faculty attempts to manage outside interest in the affair caused public announcement of the event to be withheld until today.

UP TO THE PRESIDENT

President Coolidge has been sustained by the senate in his veto of the Bureau bill providing for an increase in pensions for Grand Army veterans. But the real test of his courage and firmness will come on the tax reduction and bonus bills. Unless he signs the tax measure which provides for surtax rates which were vigorously condemned by Secretary Mellon, there will be no change in the tax laws this year. The president said he would not sign any tax measure materially different from that submitted by Secretary Mellon, and if he keeps his word, he will not sign the measure just passed which is radically different.

He also said that he would not favor any bonus this year; and now that a bonus bill has been passed, chiefly as a political measure by the republicans, it remains to be seen whether the president will veto it as he promised in his message. The president's decision on these questions will show whether he will stand by the position he has taken or whether he will play politics and straddle either or both measures by allowing them to become law without his approval.

BY A SINGLE VOTE

Republican leaders are rather anxious over the possibility of losing the national election through the instrumentality of a single vote in the electoral college. In a recent election in New York state the republican candidate, named Anson, was defeated by the small margin of ten votes. It is claimed eleven republicans played golf and neglected to vote on election day. Had they voted they could have elected the party candidate, but they are now amazed at the far-reaching possibilities of their neglect. By the defeat of Anson, the republicans lost their majority in the electoral college.

Now should the election of president be thrown into the house, as many fear it may be, the electoral vote of New York would be cast for the democrats. This is shown the importance which a single vote may assume in the choice of president and thereby in affecting the history of the nation. In the supreme court of the United States, the most vital issues have sometimes been decided by a single vote when the decision was five to four. Many other cases of a similar kind might be mentioned. In congress the other day the chance of a single vote sustained the president's veto of the Bureau bill.

PUNISHING OUR CHILDREN

A shrewd mother writes: "The best way to punish children is to make them punish themselves. My little boy, in a rage, crashed a dish from the table and shattered it to fragments on the floor. Instead of spanking him, I made him wash the dish, he loved best a little horse that he heated with a string."

This mother errs? By no means. In making her child take his own medicine, she probably effected a permanent cure.

A lad in a western town had a "perfect mania" for throwing stones through windows. His mother spanked him. His father thrashed him. It did no good. He continued his stealing. Finally he landed in juvenile court. The judge heard the case and sentenced him to three months' imprisonment. At last, the lad wouldn't throw a stone for fun.

We know another little boy who simply would not behave at two tables. Delighting in mischief and having a cruel streak in his makeup, he deliberately tormented his mother whom he knew to be nervous. One trick in his repertoire was tapping a water glass with a spoon.

Punishment seemed only to make him worse. He was used by his mother to eat his meals alone until he was willing to behave.

It often happens that the ineffectiveness of punishing youngsters is frequently due to the punishment being administered when the parent is in a rage. For instance, many a father gives his son a spanking that he regrets when he cools off. His natural reaction is to attempt to "make up" by gifts such as candy or toys. This naturally neutralizes the corrective effect. If any of a whippersnapper.

Never punish a child when you are in anger. Think it over. No matter how a parent punishes, he should chastise or punish only when in complete control of his temper.

More effective than any beating is it to say to a boy: "If you go on and do this again, you cannot go to the movies for a month. Now it is up to you. If you want to punish yourself, go ahead; you know the penalty."

NEEDED STREET REPAIRS

The demand of the hour is for better streets. At present some of our streets, particularly in the downtown section, are in a very poor condition. The department is working on lower Rogers street, another thoroughfare which shows the effect of the motor trucks. It may as well be realized now as later on that the streets, which stand up under the traffic of a few years ago will not do so now, owing to the great increase in the use of motor trucks for the transportation of heavy loads of all kinds. It is a new

WARNING TO CHINA

MOSCOW, May 15 (By the Associated Press).—The warning issued by the American and French legations in Peking to the Chinese foreign office against any attempt to interfere upon the rights of the stock and bond holders and creditors of the Chinese Eastern Railway is termed by M. Karakhan characterized the action of the United States as "a fresh proof that America was exercising financial pressure to prevent the establishment of friendly relations between Russia and China."

PADLOCK INJUNCTION

Nine of New York's Best Known Restaurants and Cabarets Closed

NEW YORK, May 15.—Broadway, where sensation is a matter of course, accepted with resignation today the sudden closing of nine of New York's best known restaurants and cabarets, eight on the hem of the theatrical district, and one in Greenwich Village, under a sweeping padlock injunction issued by Federal Judge Charles Z. Lutz of Wisconsin. The padlocking was called the most drastic action yet taken in the attempt to dry up the city's night life centers.

The padlocks were snapped with finality for one year when the Thompson-Sullivan corporation, which owns all the places, consented to the invocation of this provision of the prohibition law. The special grand jury which had been assembled to consider indictments against the corporation was dismissed yesterday, when consent was given.

Usually patrons were turned away in great numbers from their favorite rendezvous last night by placards announcing the shutdown. High salaried jazz orchestras and a host of well known dancers and singers, who were a nightly feature of radio programs, were seeking work elsewhere today. Numbered among the cabarets whose doors are now closed are the Palais Royal, the Plantation, the Moulin Rouge, the Montmartre, the Club Royale, the Balboa club, the Bern club and the 400 club.

AWAKENING SONG

Fly hence, shadows, that do keep Watchful sorrows, charmed in sleep! Though the eyes be overtaken, Yet the heart doth ever waken Thoughts, chained up in busy snares Of continual woes and cares: Love and griefs are so express, As they rather sigh than rest. Fly hence, shadows, that do keep Watchful sorrows, charmed in sleep.

DON'T GIVE IN—

If you're feelin' kinda sleepy, an' are lazy as kin be, an' your bones feel sorta creepy—make you wiggy at the knee; an' you got a task before you; though more tired you've never been, just grit your teeth and bristle up—go to it, don't give in. If nothin' seems to suit you an' just everything is wrong and the feelin' that's about you makes the day seem awful long; be an optimist—consider how much worse it might have been, and brace up, forget your troubles and go to it, don't give in. If your weary hope is sinking when the last straw seems to fail, as you've tried again at plugging but it's all to no avail; if perplexities keep pressing and your prospect light is thin, then's the time to force ambition and go to it—don't give in. If just about this time you feel a little ray of light, that makes you keen to feelin' that you'll plug with all your might, across your face there breaks a smile and over you begin, for you have found the rule is good—Go to it, don't give in.

Tuned Radio-Audio Circuit Proof Against Oscillation

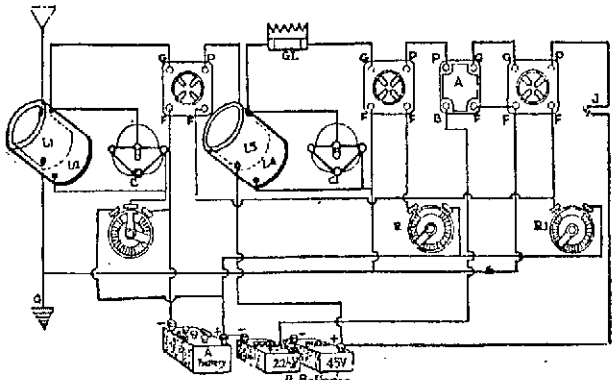

DIAGRAM OF THE RADIO-AUDIO CIRCUIT DESCRIBED HERE.

BY ISRAEL KLEIN
N.E.A. Service Radio Editor

Radio frequency amplification is no proof against local oscillation. But tuned radio frequency is—and even this to a certain extent.

For a good three-tube set, with a stage of radio and one of audio frequency amplification, therefore, it is advisable to use a tuned inductance rather than a radio-frequency transformer in the plate of the first tube and a similar inductance in the aerial circuit.

This is the principle upon which this week's look-up is based. To insure further against any possible oscillations or howls, a potentiometer is placed across the radio-amplifying tube. The result is a stable, radio audio frequency amplifier with practically no loss in selectivity and volume. The parts of this set include:

Two variable condensers, 12-plate.
One audio-frequency transformer, 4:1 to 1 ratio.
Two 6-ohm rheostats.
One 100-ohm potentiometer.
Three tube sockets.
One variable grid leak and condenser.
One single circuit phone jack.
No. 14 copper wire for connections.

Cost is low.

This, excluding tubes, batteries and lead solder, should not cost more than $20.

The two fixed capacitors in the aerial and in the first tube's plate circuit are exactly alike. They can be made as follows:

On a tube 3 1/2 inches in diameter by 12 inches high, wind 15 turns of No. 22 D.C. wire. Wind 60 turns of the same wire the same way, on another tube of slightly larger diameter and 4 inches long. Fit the smaller winding into the larger tube by means of a screw, so as to keep them in permanent relationship to each other.

Repeat this with the other inductance.

The connections are made as shown in the diagram. They should be as short and direct as possible.

The best way to connect these inductances is to attach each to its condenser by a brace. Care should be taken that the inductances are at right angles to each other.

Thirteen-plate condensers have been found of best advantage in this look-up. Their capacity would be around .00025 mfd.

Double Duty
One rheostat of 5 ohms resistance is used for both radio and audio amplifying tubes, and a similar rheostat is employed for the detector tube.

The grid leak should vary between 1 and 2 megohms and the grid condenser should have a capacity of about .0005 mfd.

The regular round No. 14 copper wire is advised for the leads, instead of the rectangular bus wire, because the square edges of the bus wire are conducive to radiating losses.

This set is best adapted to the use of 12-250 tube for detector and 12-210-A tubes for the amplifiers. The phone jack and the primary of the second radio frequency inductance may be connected by the post-socket of a 45-volt B battery, although this may be increased to 57.5 or even 80 volts, if more volume is desired. With the increase in volume it must be remembered, there comes a sacrifice in selectivity.

The tuning of the set depends almost wholly on the two condensers, whose highest efficiency will be found at almost similar readings. But the potentiometer comes in for extremely careful adjustment, the moment a signal is heard in the phones. Once it is taken care of, however, it will be found that the set will work well without further adjustment.

TEST SHORT WAVES

Government experts of the United States Bureau of Standards are experimenting with short wave radio transmitting and receiving sets. They have been able to reproduce extremely short waves measuring from 9 to 18 meters.

AERIAL MUST BE TAUT
While the antenna is loose and aways in the wind you cannot expect to get good reception. The best way to keep it taut and yet prevent it from snapping is to hold it to the mast by a pulley and heavy weight arrangement.

COLLEGE GOLF

BY JOE WILLIAMS

College golf has come into its own and the annual battle for the national intercollegiate championship, set this year for June 15-16 at the University of California, is one of the outstanding competitive events of the season. It brings together the leading college golfers of the land and the tournament is always productive of brilliant golf.

Dexter Cummings of Yale is the defending champion this year. Dexter is a brother of Edith, the Chicago maid who won the women's national golf championship. He is one of the most promising of the younger players, a plant in size, a long hitter and a splendid iron-shot player.

Cummings' game shines wide open in winning last year, carrying away the medalist honors and continuing on through the finals in thrilling style. Rudy Knepper of Princeton, a seasoned tournament player, was his victim in the finals.

Cummings will face stiff opposition this year, due to improved bids in the east and south, and he will be his best to win. Princeton will be strong with Burton Mudge and A. J. Shannon. Harvard has Captain Clough and Charley Peterson, both stars, among others.

Yale looks first to Cummings, of course, but Frank Watkins, a sophomore from Buffalo, should not be overlooked. Williams has lost Jimmy Ward and his coach and both will be missed. In California, H. W. Constock, winner of the western New York amateur championship last summer, Williams has a formidable entry for individual honors.

Partmouth has Captain Fleeshy, former Vermont state champion, a veteran in intercollegiate play and he is likely to be dangerous. Pennsylvania and Cornell do not appear to have any outstanding candidates for the title and golf is a dark horse sport and you never can tell.

The south will bank heavily on Files Crenshaw of Alabama, who recently scored a victory over Freddie Lampright of Tulane, a player who gave Chick Evans a stirring fight in the western amateur last summer at May field.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE GAME ON SO. COMON TONIGHT

The second game in the Low-ell Twilight League will be played on the South common at 8:15 o'clock this evening, when the Y.M.C.A. and Hogan's Central get together. Charlie Bird will hold the indicator. The probable battery will be Woods and Heathcock on the mound, with Y.M.C.A. and Hogan's Central behind the bat. For the Central, Gibbons and De Roshia will comprise the battery.

SILESIA AND JOHNSON COLORED STARS

At Silesia park, North Chesham, this evening, the strong Silesia mill team will meet the Johnson Colored Stars of New York, a sensational diamond team which has been making up a reputation in the country. Silesia will use its regular lineup with Knight the probable selection for mound duty. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

They prepared a national self-indication in New York last week and the hot shot of the scene was a girl playing dressed in one-piece bathing suits, if anything.

A newspaper bathing suit and a golf course, about as much in common as a cat and a dog, and the way Andy Carmichael used to tell a fellow story, but it was over on a large, expansive scale with the tired business scene.

A nation in a bathing suit used to be just a maiden in a bathing suit, but now she is the symbol of Big Business, the Foundation of American Industry, the Emblem of Gigantic Enterprise.

How the merchant princes of grandiose day ever managed to make a living about as much in common as a cat and a dog, and the way Andy Carmichael used to tell a fellow story, but it was over on a large, expansive scale with the tired business scene.

No modern business wizard would have it understood that a nation is a self-maintaining land-chop to the public without first surrounding the articles with a heavy of swimming suits, who would be crooning the Australian crawl if they saw it crawling.

When the Big Business genius of today tells you that he has got his affairs in line shape you know with certainty that a perfect 48 is on the job.

And when you read in the trade journals that the quality of pig iron produced in the American steel industry is superior in the world you know with certainty that the unbridled Ziegfeld influence which has crept into this country is business.

But can business haven't issued any figures on bathing beauties as a business institution yet, and I don't suppose that is necessary anyway. The nation's figures seem to speak for themselves.

Next week S. B. Henry will analyze the Davies plan without any prevention whatever.

The hand that rocks the cradle—

by The Veteran Motorist

THE other day, driving down from Albany, I had a flat at Red Hook, and, out of idle curiosity, I began to remark, as they drove up to the garage for a fill of Socony, the number of women who were driving their own cars, not only taking a pleasure ride for themselves, but giving the whole family a needed airing. And there was a really surprising number of young mothers leaving the cares of home behind, but not the baby—baby in his new-fangled auto cradle, and mother, fresh and alert, taking in the scenery, and both obviously having a good time.

To my mind it is almost instinctive for careful mothers who drive their own cars to select Socony Gasoline and Motor Oil, and especially, almost by instinct, to count upon the constant courtesy and the ever-present readiness to help in an emergency, which is characteristic of all Socony employees.

After all, mothers are the same in everything they do. They know what's best for the baby, and for the same reason they are quick to select and prescribe Socony Gasoline and Socony Motor Oil as a balanced diet for the family car. And they know the dependence of Socony service—courtesy and helpfulness anywhere and everywhere along the road.

FIRE CHIEF SOUNDS ANNUAL NOTE OF WARNING AGAINST HAZARDS

Saunders Says Risk Could Be Reduced if Lowell Folk
Would Eliminate Dangerous Accumulations of Litter and Rubbish—Pleads for Cleaner City

Fire Chief Edward F. Saunders has entered enthusiastically into the clean-up and paint-up drive which is in vogue throughout the nation this week. Speaking of this observance, which he declared a good thing worthy of fostering annually, the chief said he is proud to be able to declare Lowell, insofar as cleanliness is concerned, stacks up favorably with any city of similar size in the world. In commenting further upon his return from a periodic inspection trip this forenoon, Chief Saunders said, "I believe that there is no reason why Lowell should not be entirely free from at least one kind of fire loss: I mean the loss due to fires starting in rubbish and litter piles. The time is at hand for the usual spring cleaning, both inside and out, and I strongly urge every family to make a complete job of it, throwing out the worthless odds and ends that have accumulated in attics, cellars and yards throughout the past twelve months. Spaces under porches and other out-of-the-way corners should not be overlooked. The removal of useless 'junk' not only increases the fire safety of the home, but is recognized health measure and an object lesson for the children in order and cleanliness. Rubbish piles, too, will be the better for a thorough cleaning now and then, and the best reason for it is the present one."

WILL TEAR WALLS DOWN MYSTERIOUS WOMAN IN HARRIS FORGERY CASE

NEW YORK, May 12.—A mysterious Mrs. Holland, first name and address unknown, was said today to be the woman who had given to Mrs. Elaine Lee Harris the letter which caused her arrest Tuesday night on a charge of second degree forgery preferred by her husband, Beverly D. Harris, a former vice president of the National City bank.

The letter, which Mrs. Harris had declared her husband had written to another woman, on the last day of his marriage annulment trial, was given by Mrs. Holland, she said. Mrs. Holland, she added, had been introduced to her by another woman, whose name she did not mention. The letter which the former banker was supposed to have written was addressed to "Dear Elaine." Mrs. Harris said she believed Mrs. Holland lived in Detroit but added that she had little hope of finding her, that she might appear as a witness in her behalf at the forgery hearing.

Max D. Steur, the attorney who represented Mrs. Harris in the annulment proceedings, no longer is connected with her interests. Mr. Steur said he did not want "any conclusions to be drawn by any one" concerning his withdrawal from the case.

Mrs. Harris, who was released on bail yesterday after having spent the night in jail, is to be arraigned tomorrow on the forgery charge.

HARTRANFT'S ELIGIBILITY SUBJECT OF PROTEST

PARIS, May 12.—M. Herriot, head of the radical party and outstanding figure in the coalition of the left which emerged victorious from the parliamentary elections, is waiting for the political situation to clarify before making a decision as to his future course. He is quoted as declaring to the Lyon correspondent of La Matin:

"After the formidable tidal wave which has submerged French politics," said M. Herriot, "the parties have need to get back their breath and the elected deputies to be classified in well defined groups. Until then, I shall observe strictest reserve and take no attitude of decision. I am leaving today on a short trip."

M. Herriot is visiting the department of war and also the province of Dauphine.

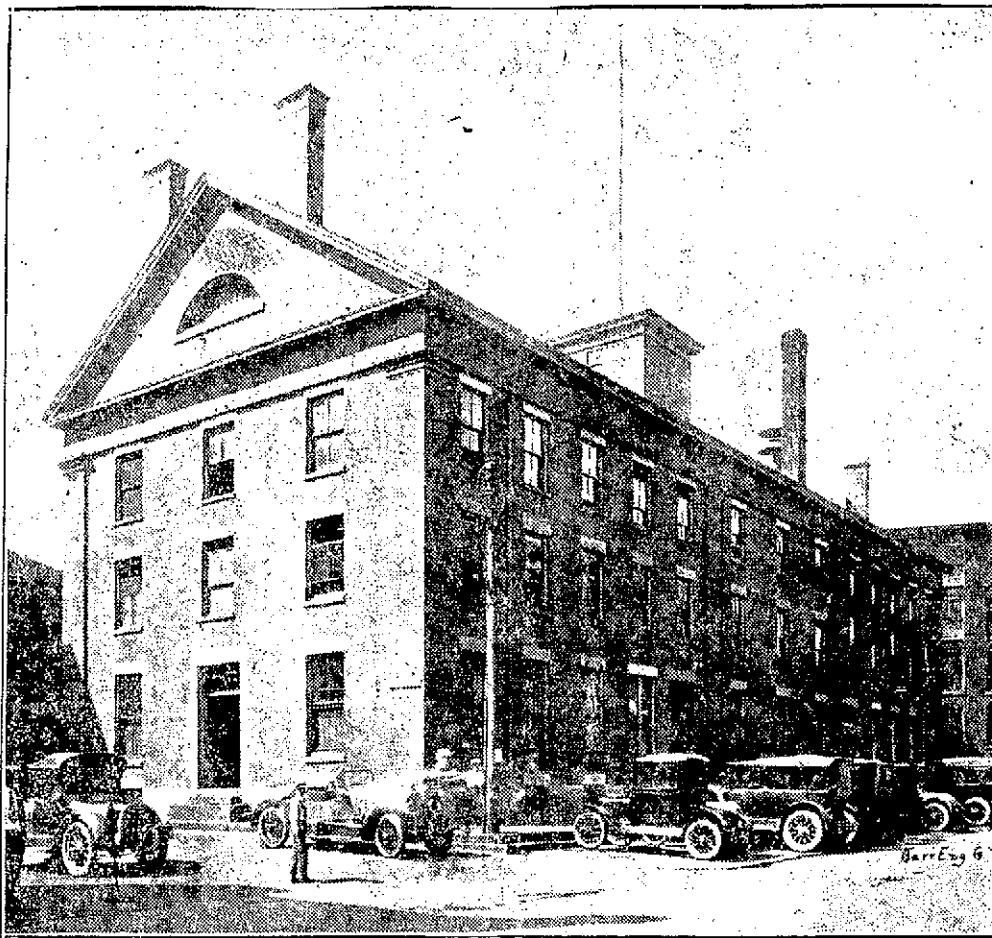

KENTUCKY DELEGATION

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—The Kentucky delegation of 26 to the General Assembly which was organized and instructed for William M. McAdoo for the presidential nomination after his supporters forced adoption of the unit rule by the state convention which adjourned here early today after a session marked by great commotion and disorder.

The unit rule was adopted after three roll calls and over the strenuous efforts of supporters of Oscar Underwood, United States senator from Alabama, who asserted their intention to take an appeal from the decision before the national convention at New York since two delegates from the Sixth Kentucky district had been instructed for Underwood. It was held, however, that despite the district instructions, the state had a right to declare for the unit rule.

Discuss Future Use of Police Station

The question of what is to be done with the police station building in Market street after the district court and allied offices move into the new building to be erected this summer in Third street, will be one for the city to answer in the near future. The removal of the courts will leave the second floor of the Market street building practically unoccupied, except for the office of the police commission and clerk of the license commission and this space could well be used by the police department if the city government so decides. The building itself is antique and still would be an old structure no matter how much remodeling should be done, but the police headquarters could be made much more comfortable and convenient than at present, if expansion were made possible by interior alterations. A new police headquarters building situated near the new district court building and connected by an underground tunnel would be the most perfect arrangement in the minds of police officials, but if the city cannot afford the expense of a new structure, things can be made much better than at present by extensive repairs to the present building. Supt. Thomas H. Atkinson said today that he has heard no discussion of plans concerning police headquarters after the courts are moved to Third street, but said without hesitation that the department needs more room and expressed the hope that it would be afforded. He believes that the second floor of the Market street building could be made into a comfortable and comfortable guard room and locker room for patrolmen, and also would favor the establishment of a pistol range in the basement where the guard room now is located. The present basement is not a good place for a locker room. It is gloomy and dirty, due to close proximity to the coal pockets. The locker also needs a thorough renovation, which would be possible if the guard room could be moved up to the second floor. Supt. Atkinson stresses the need of pistol range, where the men of the department can get a sufficient and well regulated amount of target practice, something which is but very rarely indulged in at present because of the absence of accommodations. Police officials do not look forward to the daily transfer of prisoners from Market street to the district court in Third street, as will be necessary when the new court house is occupied, but will have to make plans for this if the police station and police headquarters remain in their present location. Very little in the line of alterations has been done at the police station during the past 35 years, there being no re-arrangement of quarters to keep pace with the growth of the department and the natural increase in work and police activities. At present the liquor squad occupies the third floor of the building, with all other department activities on the ground floor. More room is needed and the department hopes that the new district court building also will mean better accommodations for the police. It may be that the city council committee on public safety and public buildings will get together and submit recommendations concerning the future use of the second floor of the Market street building, but whatever is done calls for almost immediate preliminary plans.

Walsh, who gave stories illustrated with blackboard sketches. Agent Matthew A. Rawlinson of Tremont & Suffolk mills has returned in good health once more to his executive offices. He underwent two operations at Lowell Corporation hospital and was nine weeks in making his come-back to the mill headquarters. Miss Ella Richardson, R.N., superintendent of the Lowell General Hospital, spoke on "Nursing as a Profession," before the students of the Chelmsford high school, yesterday. Miss Richardson's address was most instructive and presented in an attractive way, the advantages and duties of the nurse. Charles R. Greco of Boston will be the architect for the new Lowell district court house and will have plans ready for the approval of the county commissioners in about a month. Mr. Greco does most of the architectural work required by the county. A routine business meeting of Bolser Ross Sisterhood, Daughters of Malta, was held last evening in Veritas hall. Five candidates were given the degree and plans for summer activities discussed, while the usual monthly business was cleared up in very few moments. On invitation of Rev. James F.

BRAINTREE MAN WAS DIZZY AT THE WHEEL

In district court this morning, George W. Hayes of Braintree was fined $100 for operating an automobile while he was under the influence of liquor. A charge of drunkenness was placed on file. Hayes was arrested on May 1 by Traffic Officers Paul Spillman and Daniel Cronan, when they saw he was unable to make headway through traffic in Central street. When first arraigned on the charges, he pleaded not guilty, but changed his plea this morning.

Reported Sale of Hood Property

as yet but did not deny that his company is purchasing the property. He simply did not care to talk about it at this time.

The Hood property in Thorndike street is one of the most important industrial plants in the city and is ideally located for any business, being on the main tracks of the southern division of the Boston & Maine railroad and close to the industrial section of the city.

The building was erected many years ago by the late Charles I. Hood, whose main product, Hood's Sarsaparilla, was internationally advertised and known throughout the world. Hood's Sarsaparilla was without doubt the most popular product of its kind manufactured and had the largest sale. Through the advertising and sale of this product the fame of this city was broadcast throughout the world, it being said that "the city, village or town in any country of the world where the word 'Sarsaparilla' was not linked with Hood and Lowell, was unvisited."

Up to a year and a half ago, the manufacture of this product was one of the most important industries of the city. Following the death of Charles I. Hood, the company was sold to W. B. Warner Company, Incorporated, of New York, and 18 months ago the Lowell plant was closed and the machinery transferred to New York state. The reason for the transfer, it was reported, was to bring the manufacturing plant near the supply of raw materials which entered in the manufacture of sarsaparilla.

The magnificent building, however, still stands as a monument to the industry of the late Charles I. Hood. He developed it from a small beginning to the world-famous position it occupied upon his death. It has been rumored many times during the past year that out-of-town industries were attempting to purchase the property, but for some reason sales failed to materialize.

Lynech, faithful friend of Bishop Delany, assembly, Rev. John H. Little Likelihood of Legisla- ture Entering Serious Con- sideration During Session

Consensus of Opinion
Among Solons Favors Reference to Next Year's Body

The proposal of the state board of health, that a $1,000,000 trunk sewer be built along the Merrimack river from Lowell to the sea, is not likely to meet with any definite action at the present session of the legislature. It is understood that under agreement the proposal will go over to the next annual session for consideration. The several times among the solons is that the time is not yet ripe for such a tremendous project, the cost of which to the cities and towns affected would be tremendous. As the plan is wholly feasible from an engineering standpoint, the solons for the most part feel it should not be altogether abandoned. In view of this sentiment the project will go over in all probability to the next annual session and in the meanwhile the state board of health is looking in to provide a quiet missionary campaign to excite interest and desire along the proposed path of the sewer.

HELD ANNUAL MAY PARTY

The annual May party by the R-U-With-Us Boys was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Rita Smith of 36 Sargent street. A splendid program had been arranged featuring Mr. John Spillman with his delightful piano selections, and Mr. Leo Mann entertained with his singing. After the musical program a light lunch was served, which was followed by the playing of numerous games. The party broke up at an early hour, with the crowd joining in the chorus of "Home, Sweet Home."
